Nebraska, Buffs Battle in Traditional Post-Thanksgiving Matchup

Nebraska completes its regular season in a traditional post-Thanksgiving matchup with Colorado on Friday, Nov. 26 in front of the 268th consecutive sellout at Memorial Stadium. The Huskers and Buffs each remain alive in the jumbled Big 12 North Division race heading into the final two weekends of league action. The game will be televised to a national audience on ABC Sports, beginning at 11 a.m. (CST).

The Huskers enter the game with a 5-5 overall record and a 3-4 mark in conference play. In addition to its Big 12 North hopes, Nebraska will be playing for the opportunity to keep its string of consecutive bowl appearances intact. The Huskers have made a post-season trip in each of the past 35 seasons and have finished with a winning regular season record each year since 1962.

Colorado comes to Lincoln with an identical 3-4 Big 12 Conference record. The Buffs are 6-4 overall and have already qualified for a bowl game. Colorado opened the year with three consecutive wins, before losing four of five contests to open conference play, but has climbed back into the North Division race with victories at Kansas and against Kansas State last week in Boulder. Like Nebraska, CU can still represent the North Division in the Big 12 title game, but needs outside help.

Nebraska will honor 21 seniors who will be playing their final home game against Colorado. In addition, the Husker program will retire the uniform No. 64 of College and Pro Football Hall of Famer Bob Brown, who starred in the Husker program from 1961 to 1963.

Huskers Fall on Road Against Second-Ranked Sooners

Junior I-back Cory Ross rushed for 130 yards to lead Nebraska, but Oklahoma's efficient offense and strong defense proved to be too much as the No. 2 Sooners handed the Huskers a 30-3 loss at OU's Memorial Stadium. The loss dropped NU to 5-5 overall and 3-4 in Big 12 play, while OU improved to 10-0 and 7-0 in conference action.

Ross pounded through one of the nation's top defenses 30 times for his sixth 100-yard effort this season. Ross became the 27th Husker in history to top the 1,000-yard mark on the season with the effort. The Huskers finished with 201 rushing yards but were outgained 511-274 in total offense as OU quarterback Jason White re-wrote the Oklahoma record book. The 2003 Heisman Trophy winner completed a school-record 18 consecutive passes before finishing 29-of-35 for 383 yards and three touchdowns.

After picking up a field goal on the first drive of the game, Oklahoma was not able to get untracked until White hit his stride in the second period. The Sooners made it 9-0 on Willie Roberts' 13-yard touchdown reception with 10:55 remaining in the half, capping a 70-yard, 11-play drive that included three third-down conversions.

Oklahoma converted an interception on Nebraska's next possession into a quick score and a 16-0 Sooner lead. The Sooners extended their lead to 23-0 just before halftime when White hit Brandon Jones for a four-yard touchdown pass, capping a long OU scoring drive. White completed his 14th straight pass to Mark Bradley in the third quarter and the senior tip-toed the sideline 24 yards for a touchdown to give Oklahoma a 30-0 lead in the third quarter.

Nebraska drove deep into Sooner territory midway through the fourth quarter, but stalled on downs. The Huskers then put their only points on the board in the game's final seconds. Fullback Steve Kriewald rambled 48 yards to the OU 24, then ran three yards before Joe Dailey spiked the ball with one second remaining. Sophomore place-kicker David Dyches connected on a 39-yard field goal on the final play of the game to account for the final margin.

The Husker defense was led by senior linebacker Barrett Ruud who had a team-high 14 tackles, while Josh Bullocks tied his career-high with nine tackles and a pass breakup.

Recapping Game 10...Oklahoma 30, Nebraska 3

► I-back Cory Ross rushed for 130 yards on 30 carries against the Sooners. Ross' 130 yards pushed his season rushing total to 1,067 yards, giving him the 27th 1,000-yard season in Nebraska history. Ross became the first Nebraska I-back to top 1,000 rushing yards since Dahrran Diedrick rushed for 1,299 yards in 2001.

► Ross' rushing effort was his sixth 100-yard game of the season and the ninth of his Nebraska career, all in the past 14 games. Ross has averaged 150.0 yards in the past three games, including 194 yards vs. Missouri, 126 yards at Iowa State and 130 at Oklahoma.

► The 130 rushing yards by Ross was the most against Oklahoma in 2004, and Ross is the only opposing rusher to top 100 yards against the Sooner defense.

► Junior punter Sam Koch had three of his six punts downed inside the Sooner 20-yard line, giving him 12 punts inside the opponent's 20-yard line in the past three games.

► Senior linebacker Barrett Ruud made 14 tackles against the Sooners, pushing his career tackle total to 423. Ruud's 423 tackles are tied for third in Big 12 history with Texas A&M's Dat Nguyen, and just eight tackles from second place on the conference's career chart.

► Ruud increased his season tackle total to 134 stops, good for third place on the Huskers' single-season list. Ruud now holds two of the top three spots on Nebraska's single-season tackle list, including his school-record 149 tackles last season. With eight more tackles in 2004, Ruud will hold the top two spots on the single-season tackle charts.

► Ruud added a pair of tackles for loss against the Sooners, pushing his season total to 17 tackles for loss which is tied for ninth on the Nebraska season list. He now has 49 career tackles for loss, second on the Husker career list.

► Nebraska junior free safety Josh Bullocks set a season high and tied his career-high with nine tackles against the Sooners, including eight solo stops. Bullocks also made nine tackles against Ole Miss in the 2002 Independence Bowl and his previous season high was eight tackles against Baylor.

► Strong safety Daniel Bullocks tied his season-high with eight tackles, matching his total of the previous week at Iowa State.

► Sophomore place-kicker David Dyches connected on a 39-yard field goal on the game's final play and improved to 2-of-2 on the season. Dyches' field goal prevented Nebraska from being shut out for the first time since 1996.

► The Nebraska defense limited Oklahoma to 98 rushing yards, marking the ninth time in 10 games the Huskers have limited the opposition to 105 yards or less on the ground. Oklahoma freshman running back Adrian Peterson was held to 58 yards in limited playing time, the first time in 2004 he has had less than 100 yards rushing.

► The 383 yards passing by Oklahoma's Jason White is the sixth-most ever against the Husker defense.

► The crowd of 84,916 fans was the fifth-largest ever to watch Nebraska play and the third-largest in a regular-season game.

NU-Colorado Series Notes

- ▶ Colorado won 10 of the first 20 games in the series before NU won 23 of the next 24 between 1962 and 1985.
- ▶ The 1994 matchup between the Huskers and Buffaloes was the 200th consecutive sellout in Memorial Stadium.
- ▶ The 1998 contest was the first game in modern history that Nebraska won (16-14) when not scoring an offensive touchdown.
- ▶ The 1999 matchup was the second overtime game in Nebraska history (NU 33, CU 30).
- ▶ The 2000 game in Lincoln marked the first-ever walk-off win in school history.

Nebraska-Colorado Ties

- ▶ The Huskers have six players from the state of Colorado on their roster - Jake Andersen (OL, Littleton), Chris Bryant (DT, Aurora), Thomas Lawson (IB, Parker), Gary Pike (OL, Pueblo), Ross Pilkington (WR, Ft. Collins) and Cory Ross (IB, Denver). The Buffaloes have only one player from the state of Nebraska on their roster, A.J. Anderson (CB, Omaha).
- ▶ Defensive coordinator Kevin Cosgrove spent one season in the state of Colorado, serving as linebackers coach at Colorado State in 1989.

Scouting the Colorado Buffaloes

The Huskers end the regular season this weekend at home against a surging Colorado squad. The Buffaloes have won their past two games to get back into contention for the Big 12 North title and a chance at a spot in the league title game.

CU enters the post-Thanksgiving matchup against the Huskers with a 6-4 record overall after becoming bowl-eligible with a 38-31 victory over Kansas State last weekend. Colorado is 3-4 in league play, including wins over North Division foes Kansas State, Kansas and current division leader Iowa State.

The Buffaloes' resurgence has come behind an offense that is gaining 346 yards per game, including 219 yards per game through the air. Quarterback Joel Klatt has gained 1,756 passing yards this season but has tossed just eight touchdowns against 13 interceptions. Klatt's favorite target has been Evan Judge, who has pulled in a team-high 28 receptions for 326 yards and three touchdowns. Tight end Joe Klopfenstein leads CU with four touchdown receptions. On the ground, tailback Bobby Purify has rushed for 880 yards and a team-best eight touchdowns, but the Buffaloes are only gaining 127.1 rushing yards per game.

The Colorado defense has given up yardage to the tune of 424.8 total offense yards per game, but kept the Buffs in contention by holding opponents to just 24.2 points per game. Opponents have averaged 176.1 yards rushing and 248.7 yards passing against Colorado this season. Linebacker Brian Iwuh leads the charge with 78 tackles and eight tackles for loss, while Lorenzo Sims paces the squad with three interceptions and nine pass breakups.

Field position has also been important in CU's late-season run, as the Buffaloes lead the nation in net punting at 42.5 yards per punt. Punter John Torp has averaged 47.2 yards on 52 kicks, including 17 of at least 50 yards.

Colorado Coach Gary Barnett

Coach Gary Barnett is in his 15th season as a head coach and sixth season guiding the Buffaloes. He owns an 75-77-1 career record, including a 40-32 record at Colorado.

Barnett has taken the Buffs to at least seven wins three times in his first five years, including a 10-3 mark in 2001. It was the second 10-win season Barnett has guided, including a 10-2 record in 1995 and Rose Bowl Berth while coaching Northwestern. His teams have had at least a share of the conference title three times in the past nine years, including one title in the Big 12 and two in the Big Ten.

Barnett came to Boulder after seven successful seasons at Northwestern. He also was head coach at Fort Lewis in 1982 and 1983, earning a combined 8-11-1 record.

Before taking over at Northwestern, Barnett spent eight years as an assistant coach at Colorado, serving the last seven as quarterbacks and fullbacks coach. In 1991, Barnett was also the Buffs' offensive coordinator.

Nebraska-Colorado Series...NU leads, 44-16-2

The Huskers and Buffaloes meet for the 57th consecutive season and 63rd time overall when they clash in Memorial Stadium the day after Thanksgiving. The series dates back to a 23-10 NU victory in Boulder in 1898. The teams met five more times until 1907 before renewing the series every year since 1948.

Nebraska has dominated the series, especially in Lincoln where it owns a 23-7 series advantage. The Huskers are 19-7 in Memorial Stadium against the Buffs, including winning five of the last six matchups at home. CU pulled out a 28-12 victory the last time the teams met in Lincoln in 2002. The Buffaloes were ranked 13th nationally heading into that game while the Huskers were unranked entering the contest for the first time since 1981.

Callahan Charity Events a Hit in Husker Nation

Callahan has been embraced by Cornhusker fans throughout the state of Nebraska and nationwide since he took over the program last winter. This summer, he and his staff have met fans across the state on several occasions, including two new charity events.

Coach Callahan's Football 101 for Women took place on July 29 in Lincoln, with more than 1,000 participants learning more about the game of football. Attendees opened the day with tours of Memorial Stadium, followed by the opportunity to participate in the Tunnel Walk. The evening included demonstrations on officiating, football uniforms, as well as nutrition and strength training for Husker players. Football 101 concluded with participants breaking into beginning, intermediate and advanced groups to learn more about the X's and O's of the game. The first annual Football 101 for Women raised $35,000 to benefit the National Breast Cancer Foundation.

The first-year coach and his staff also organized Coach Callahan's Fun Run/Walk for Resources on Saturday, Aug. 21. More than 800 participated in the event that began and ended on Stadium Drive. Coach Callahan's wife, Valerie, started the race, which raised $5,500 each for Juvenile Diabetes and the University Libraries. Runners who participated in the event had the opportunity to attend NU's closed practice after the event.

Nebraska Head Coach Bill Callahan

Coach Bill Callahan (Illinois Benedictine, 1978) is the 27th head coach in Nebraska history, after being named to the post on Jan. 9, 2004. Callahan took control of the NU program after two seasons as the head coach of the Oakland Raiders. He guided Oakland to the AFC Championship and Super Bowl XXXVII in his rookie season as a head coach in 2002, and compiled a 17-18 overall record as the Raiders' head man.

Callahan is one of five coaches to take a collegiate head coaching job after previously guiding a team to a Super Bowl appearance. Army Head Coach Bobby Ross is also active in the college ranks, while George Allen, Forrest Gregg and Bill Walsh previously led teams to the Super Bowl and returned to the college game.

The 48-year-old Callahan has spent the past nine years in the National Football League, beginning his pro coaching career with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1995 to 1997. He served as an assistant with the Raiders for four seasons from 1998 to 2001, before taking over the top job in Oakland in 2002.

Callahan has extensive experience at the collegiate level. Before moving into the professional ranks, Callahan served as the offensive line coach at Wisconsin for five seasons and also had assistant coaching stints at Illinois, Northern Arizona and Southern Illinois. Overall, Callahan is in his 27th year in the coaching profession. In addition to his nine years in the National Football League and 15 previous seasons as a collegiate assistant, Callahan was an assistant coach for two seasons in the Illinois prep ranks in 1978 and 1979.

A native of Chicago, Callahan earned his bachelor's degree from Illinois Benedictine in 1978. He was an NAIA honorable-mention All-America selection as a quarterback in each of his final two seasons.

Callahan Looking to Guide Huskers to Bowl Trip in First Season

The NU football program has a history of success under first-year head coaches. Bill Callahan is the 27th coach in the 115-year history of the program, but just the fourth head coach since the start of the 1962 season. With his 56-17 victory over Western Illinois, Callahan became the fourth straight Nebraska head coach to open his career with a victory. The win gave first-year Husker head coaches a 19-7-1 all-time record in their coaching debuts on the Nebraska sideline. Each of Nebraska's past three head coaches used a win in their season opener to build momentum for a bowl trip in their first Husker campaign. Bob Devaney led NU to the Gotham Bowl in 1962, following six consecutive losing seasons; Tom Osborne guided the Huskers a Cotton Bowl bid in 1973; and Frank Solich's first squad in 1998 played in the Holiday Bowl.

Huskers' Championship Staff Has Diverse Background, Tradition of Recruiting Excellence

Nebraska's coaching staff includes men who spent the 2003 campaign in six collegiate conferences, including the Big 12 (Scott Downing, Turner Gill), Big Ten (Kevin Cosgrove, Phil Elmassian), SEC (John Blake), Mountain West (Bill Busch), Western Athletic (Dennis Wagner) and Big East (Dave Kennedy). In addition to Callahan, Randy Jordan and Jay Norvell also joined the NU staff after coaching in the NFL with the Oakland Raiders last season.

► Callahan's Nebraska coaching staff features four coaches who have either played or coached in the Super Bowl. Callahan and Norvell coached in Super Bowl XXXVII with Oakland, and running backs coach Randy Jordan was a player on that team. John Blake was part of the Dallas Cowboys Super Bowl championship teams in both 1993 and 1995.

► In addition to the NFL success of the coaches, Callahan's staff has a history of winning championships at the collegiate level. Members of the Nebraska coaching staff have been part of teams that have captured league titles in each of the following conferences—Atlantic Coast, Big 12, Big Ten, Mid-American, Mountain West, Pac-10 and Western Athletic.

► The staff has recruiting ties in nearly every part of the United States. ESPN recruiting analyst Tom Lemming compiled a list of the 10 best recruiters in college history in 2001. Callahan was included on the list although he had been out of the college ranks for six years at that time. Husker Associate A.D. Tim Cassidy was on Lemming's Top 10 recruiters (current college coaches) in 1999, and Kevin Cosgrove and Turner Gill were listed as "other big-time recruiting names."

Huskers Strive for Unity On and Off Field

Nebraska Head Coach Bill Callahan has stressed the Huskers' togetherness off the field since taking over in Lincoln last January. The Huskers have had numerous team-building activities and outings since last winter. Included in the list are a team bowling tournament at the conclusion of winter conditioning, a team softball game at the end of the spring semester, and a college football video game tournament throughout the summer.

Under Callahan the Huskers have also taken team outings to Husker men's basketball and women's soccer contests. The Huskers will have a full day of activities on Wednesday, Nov. 24. With an off day from classes, Nebraska players will visit four local hospitals in the morning, before enjoying Thanksgiving dinner as a team following Wednesday's practice.

Weekly Football Press Conference

Nebraska will hold its regular weekly press conference/teleconference to preview the Colorado contest on Monday, Nov. 22.

The press conferences are held in the Don Bryant Media Facility Level 6 and will begin with Nebraska Volleyball Coach John Cook at 11 a.m., with lunch served at 11:15 a.m. Husker coordinators will be available at 11:40 a.m., followed by Head Coach Bill Callahan at noon. Nebraska players will be available following Callahan.

Each press conference will be available via teleconference and selected conferences will be carried on satellite (please see page 17 for details and coordinates) and quotes will be transcribed and posted by mid-afternoon on Huskers.com, while edited sound bites are available on NebraskaNet.com. The teleconferences are also carried live on HuskersNSide.com. Media wishing to participate in the teleconference should contact the SID office at (402) 472-2263 for more information. The toll-free number for the teleconference is (877) 229-1563 and media can acquire the weekly passcode by calling the SID office.

Please note Nebraska's press conference to preview the Friday, Nov. 26 game against Colorado will be held on Monday, Nov. 22, instead of the regular Tuesday press conference.

Four Huskers Elected as 2004 Captains

Four Husker players have been elected by their teammates to serve as captains for the 2004 football season. The group is headed by senior Barrett Ruud, who is in his third year as the Huskers' starting middle linebacker. Ruud is the fourth member of his family to serve as a Nebraska team captain.

Coach Bill Callahan opened up captaincy to juniors and sophomores and three non-seniors were elected as captains. On offense, junior wide receiver Ross Pilkington and sophomore quarterback Joe Dailey were tabbed as captains. Joining Ruud as a captain on defense is junior free safety Josh Bullocks who earned All-America honors during his sophomore season.

Twenty-One Seniors to Play Final Game at Memorial Stadium

Nebraska will salute a class of 21 seniors before kickoff of the Colorado game. The class includes 17 fifth-year seniors, three seniors who are in their fourth year in the program and one junior-college transfer. Senior captain Barrett Ruud has become Nebraska's all-time leading tackler, while senior offensive lineman Mike Erickson has seen the most extensive action on offense, starting every game the past three seasons. Overall, Nebraska's fifth-year seniors have been a part of 43 victories and four bowl trips while in the Husker program.

Hall of Famer Bob Brown to Have Number Retired

Former Husker and NFL great Bob "Boomer" Brown will have his Nebraska jersey No. 64 permanently retired at halftime of the Huskers' matchup with Colorado. The University of Nebraska has retired the jerseys of 15 other former Huskers, but previously, only Tom Novak has had his number retired. Novak's jersey was voted into retirement by the N-Club in 1949. Nebraska's other 14 retired jerseys are those who have won major college football awards. The N-Club Advisory Club, formed in 2004, voted unanimously that Brown's jersey should be permanently retired.

Brown is one of just 10 players among all Big 12 Conference universities to be inducted into both the college and pro football halls of fame, being so honored in 1993 and 2004, respectively. The list of other honorees attests to the difficulty of reaching that athletic pinnacle, not once but twice.

The other nine players in the conference who have been inducted into both halls of fame includes one other Nebraska player—Guy Chamberlin, an end for NU in 1913-14-15. Oklahoma (Tommy McDonald, back, 1954-56 and Lee Roy Selmon, defensive line, 1972-75) and Texas (Earl Campbell, running back, 1974-77 and Bobby Layne, quarterback, 1944-47) have also each had two honorees, while four Big 12 schools have had one each, including Baylor (linebacker Mike Singletary, 1977-80); Kansas (Gale Sayers, halfback, 1962-64); Missouri (Kellen Winslow, tight end, 1976-78) and Oklahoma State (Barry Sanders, halfback, 1986-88).

Huskers, Colorado Continue Post-Thanksgiving Tradition

Nebraska will play on the Friday after Thanksgiving for the 15th straight year. The Huskers have met Colorado for post-Turkey Day festivities each of the last nine years (since the formation of the Big 12). Before 1996, Nebraska and Oklahoma met for six consecutive years on the day after Thanksgiving.

Since 1990, Nebraska has a 12-3 mark on post-Thanksgiving Friday, losing only to Oklahoma in 1990 and Colorado in 2001 and 2002. The Huskers are 6-1 in that same stretch in Lincoln on the Friday after Thanksgiving, with the only loss a 28-13 setback to CU in 2002. Before 1990, Nebraska and Oklahoma also met on the Friday after Thanksgiving in 1973, 1976, 1977 and 1982 and squared off on Thanksgiving Day five times between 1965 and 1972.

NU Needs Victory to Keep Bowl and Winning Regular-Season Streaks Intact

Nebraska enters the Colorado game with a 5-5 overall mark and needs a victory to keep two nation-leading streaks intact. The Huskers hold an NCAA record, having been to a bowl game each of the past 35 seasons, beginning with the 1969 Sun Bowl.

▶ Nebraska's 35 straight bowl appearances is an NCAA record. Michigan has been to 29 consecutive bowl games and has qualified for a 30th straight appearance in 2004. Overall, Nebraska has been to 42 bowl games, tied for the fourth-most all-time with USC.

▶ The Huskers have 42 consecutive winning regular seasons and needs to defeat Colorado for a 43rd consecutive winning regular season. Nebraska posted a 7-7 record in 2002, but owns a streak of 42 straight non-losing seasons. The 42 straight non-losing seasons is tied for second all-time in NCAA Division I-A, tying Notre Dame's run of 42 straight seasons from 1889 to 1932 and trailing only Penn State's 49 straight seasons of .500 or better from 1939 to 1987.

Huskers Remain Alive in Tight North Division Race

Nebraska is one of four teams still in the hunt for the North Division's berth in the Dec. 4 Big 12 Championship Game in Kansas City. Entering the games of Saturday, Nov. 20, only Iowa State controls its own destiny in the North Division race. The Cyclones can clinch the North by winning their final two games (at Kansas State, vs. Missouri). There are two scenarios for Nebraska to win the North Division, including...

▶ Nebraska defeats Colorado and Iowa State loses both of its final two games. In this scenario, Nebraska would either win the North Division outright at 4-4 or tie with Missouri, and Nebraska would win the tiebreaker with the Tigers.

▶ Nebraska defeats Colorado, while Iowa State beats Kansas State and Missouri defeats Kansas and Iowa State. This scenario would result in a three-way tie at 4-4 between Nebraska, Iowa State and Missouri. The Huskers would win the tiebreaker based on the third step in the Big 12's three-team tiebreaker.

Please see page five of the Big 12 football guide for full tiebreaker procedures and see the Big 12 release for all possible North Division scenarios.

Huskers Hope to Make Buffs One-Dimensional Behind Strong Run Defense

The Husker Blackshirt defense has succeeded throughout the 2004 season in making opponent's one-dimensional by shutting down the running game. The Huskers have held nine of their 10 opponents to 105 yards or less on the ground, most recently limiting a high-powered Oklahoma offense to just 98 yards rushing, including a season-low 58 yards by Sooner freshman running back Adrian Peterson.

Only Kansas State has picked up more than 105 yards rushing against the Husker defense. The Huskers rank first in the Big 12 Conference and fifth nationally in rushing defense, allowing 94.6 yards per game, and have had good success against the run, including...

▶ Nebraska allows just 2.77 yards per rush, the seventh-best mark in the country.

▶ Nebraska had a streak of 25 straight quarters without allowing a rushing touchdown end against Texas Tech. Only four opponents have rushed for a touchdown against Nebraska.

▶ Nebraska has allowed just seven runs of longer than 20 yards in 10 games.

▶ The Huskers held Western Illinois to minus-three yards rushing, marking the 19th time in school history the Huskers held an opponent to negative rushing yards.

Part of Nebraska's rush defense excellence has been the negative yardage piled up as a result of sacks. The Huskers have recorded 24 sacks, including a team-high four by senior defensive end Benard Thomas. Sophomore defensive end Jay Moore, junior defensive end Wali Muhammad, senior linebacker Barrett Ruud and sophomore defensive end Adam Carriker have each chipped in three sacks. The Huskers have 80 total tackles for loss, led by Ruud's 17 tackles for loss.

A "Ruud" Awakening

Nebraska senior Mike linebacker Barrett Ruud continues to make a strong case for All-America consideration. The Lincoln native is one of 21 seniors who will play their final game at Memorial Stadium against Colorado, capping a memorable career in the Husker program. Ruud has topped double figures in tackles nine times in 2004, highlighted by a 17-tackle performance against Missouri on Oct. 30. His effort against the Tigers included four tackles for loss, and earned him Big 12 Defensive Player-of-the-Week honors for the first time in 2004 and the second time in his career.

The 6-2, 240-pound Ruud came into his senior year after a record-setting 2003 campaign when he racked up 149 tackles, the most ever in a season by a Husker defender. Ruud's 2003 tackle record is in serious jeopardy because of his dominant play this fall. Ruud has a team-leading 134 tackles in 2004, the third-most in school history, including 80 solo stops, just three shy of the Husker season record for solo tackles.

Ruud has been the dominant presence on a Nebraska defense that ranks fifth nationally against the run. His list of Nebraska milestones and records is nearly too long to detail, but includes...

▶ Ruud became Nebraska's all-time leading tackler on Oct. 9 at Texas Tech. He made 12 tackles in that game to push his career total to 347 stops, surpassing the previous Nebraska record of 342 tackles by Jerry Murtaugh from 1968 to 1970.

▶ Ruud continues to add to the Nebraska tackle standard. After making 14 tackles against Oklahoma, Ruud has 423 career tackles, including a school-record 212 solo stops.

▶ Ruud is among a group of seven players in Big 12 history (1996 to present) to record 400 career tackles. He is within eight tackles (431) of becoming the No. 2 tackler in conference history.

▶ At Kansas State, Ruud had a career-high 19 tackles, including a school-record 16 solo stops. Ruud has posted four 15-plus tackle games in Big 12 play, and has nine double-figure tackle efforts in 10 games this season.

▶ Ruud has 21 double-figure tackle games in his career, including 16 of the past 18 games.

▶ Ruud has led Nebraska in tackles nine times this season and 17 times since the start of the 2003 campaign.

▶ In Nebraska's past four games, Ruud has 10 tackles for loss. His four stops behind the line against Missouri tied a single-game Nebraska record for linebackers.

▶ Ruud's 17 tackles for loss this season lead the team and rank in a tie for ninth on the NU single-season list. His 49 career tackles for loss are second in school history, trailing only 1997 Lombardi winner Grant Wistrom. Against Missouri, he passed 1993 Butkus winner Trev Alberts (45) and 1985 All-American Jim Skow (44) on NU's career tackles for loss list.

▶ Ruud became just the fourth player in school history to record more than one season with 100-plus tackles when he cracked the century mark against Missouri. He is one of only three players with two single-season tackle efforts in the Nebraska top 10, joining Lee Kunz and Clete Pillen.

▶ Ruud leads the Big 12 in tackles per game and is among the top 10 nationally in that category.

Huskers Come From Near and Far

Nebraska has a great history of attracting the top in-state high school talent to Lincoln. However, with a population base of just 1.7 million people, Nebraska has traditionally looked across the United States and beyond for recruits. The 2004 roster is no different.

Just over half of Nebraska's 125-man roster are in-state players with 67 players hailing from the Cornhusker state. Omaha leads the way with 13 players on this year's roster, while 12 players from Lincoln stayed within the city limits to play for Nebraska. Omaha Central High School and Lincoln Southeast High School are regular suppliers of talent to Lincoln, and are well-represented in 2004. Seven current Huskers are from Southeast, while six players graduated from Omaha Central.

Nebraska is just one of 24 states represented on the 2004 roster. Texas is home to nine Huskers, with Colorado (6), California (5) and Illinois (5) just behind. From the international ranks, Nebraska has players from Canada (Sandro DeAngelis) and Germany (Isaiah Fluellen). In addition, junior offensive lineman Seppo Ewvaraye is a native of Finland who was an exchange student in Laurel, Neb.

Tackling Part of Ruud Family Tradition

During his record-setting 2003 season, Barrett Ruud raced past his father, Tom, on the NU career tackles list. Tom Ruud finished his Husker career (1972-74) with 202 career tackles, including a team-leading 104 tackles in 1974.

- The father-son Ruud combination owns several Husker defensive milestones.
- ▶ Tom and Barrett Ruud are the only father-son combination to both lead NU in tackles in a single season. Barrett accomplished the feat last season and will do so in 2004, while Tom's 104 tackles in 1974 were a team-high.
- ▶ The Ruud's are the only family combination to both rank in the top 25 on Nebraska's career tackles list.
- ▶ Barrett and Tom Ruud have a combined 625 tackles.

During fall camp, Barrett Ruud was elected as one of four team captains for the 2004 season, allowing the Butkus Award candidate to join his father in the fraternity of Husker captains. The Ruuds are the first father-son duo to serve as captains during their respective Husker careers.

The family connections continue beyond the father-son relationship for the Ruud family. In addition to Tom and Barrett Ruud, several other family members have made their mark at Nebraska. Barrett's great-grandfather, Clarence Swanson, was an all-conference selection during his Nebraska career (1918-21), while two of Barrett's uncles, Bob Martin (1973-75) and John Ruud (1978-79) also played for Nebraska. Both Swanson and Martin also served as Husker team captains. This fall, the Ruud family connection grows, as Barrett's younger brother, Bo, is a redshirt freshman Sam linebacker.

Secondary Numbers

The Nebraska defensive backfield is one of the nation's most experienced units. The Huskers returned three starters for the 2004 season—free safety Josh Bullocks, strong safety Daniel Bullocks and cornerback Fabian Washington. Fifth-year senior Lornell McPherson had played in 38 games and made nine starts entering his senior season.

Josh Bullocks earned first-team All-America honors last season when he intercepted a school-record 10 passes. This summer, Bullocks was named to nearly every first-team All-America list, while Washington was a third-team All-Big 12 pick last season and the No. 6 cornerback in the nation by The Sporting News heading into the 2004 season.

As a group the Bullocks' brothers, McPherson and Washington have played in 153 career games at Nebraska with a combined 99 starts. They have also combined to intercept 37 passes, led by Josh Bullocks' 13 picks, and break up 82 passes, including 38 by Washington. McPherson is the only senior among the group, while the others are in their junior seasons.

The Blackshirts have a history of outstanding defensive backs, but never before has a Nebraska defense featured a secondary with a chance to make such a significant dent in the school record book.

- ▶ Josh Bullocks picked off his second pass of the season against Missouri, pushing his career total to 13 interceptions. Bullocks is second on the Nebraska career interceptions list, just one behind career leader Dana Stephenson. Washington has three interceptions in 2004, giving him 11 in his career, good for a tie for fourth on the Husker career list. Daniel Bullocks has the top 10 in his sights with seven career picks, including a team-high five in 2004. He ranks seventh nationally in interceptions per game at 0.50 per contest.

The 1969 Husker team featured a threesome that completed their careers with 33 interceptions (Stephenson, 14; Bill Kosch, 10; Jim Anderson, 9), while Kosch, Anderson and Joe Blahak were all members of the 1970 and 1971 national championship teams and completed their careers with a combined 29 interceptions. Josh Bullocks, Washington and Daniel Bullocks need three more combined interceptions to become the top trio of teammates in career interceptions, and have the rest of 2004 and all of the 2005 season to accomplish the feat.

- ▶ The 24 combined interceptions of Josh Bullocks and Fabian Washington ties the most by two teammates in school history, matching the 24 combined picks of Stephenson and Kosch who were teammates on the 1969 team.

The Husker secondary has also exhibited its depth in 2004. McPherson missed the Pittsburgh and Kansas games with an injury, while Washington sat out the second half at Pittsburgh with an injury. True freshman Cortney Grixby started two games in McPherson's place, while fifth-year senior Kellen Huston has been a key player throughout the season.

Both Grixby and Huston responded well. Grixby had seven tackles and two pass breakups in his two starts, while Huston had 10 tackles, two tackles for loss, a fumble recovery and seven pass breakups in wins over Kansas and Pittsburgh. Huston's five breakups at Pittsburgh tied for the third-most in school history. Reserve free safety Andrew Shanle was called on for major duty against Kansas State with Josh Bullocks slowed with an injury. Shanle had seven tackles, a sack and a fumble recovery against the Wildcats, and blocked a punt and recovered a fumble in Nebraska's 24-3 win over Missouri.

First-Half Offensive Explosion Highlights Opener

Nebraska racked up 398 yards of total offense and 42 points before halftime in its 56-17 victory over Western Illinois. Nebraska's 398 total yards included 213 through the air and 185 rushing yards. The 398 total offensive yards in the first half were the most Nebraska has posted in an opening half since gaining 405 yards in the first half of a 49-0 win over Baylor on Oct. 12, 1996 in Lincoln. The Huskers' 42 points were their most before half since also dropping 42 points on Iowa State on Oct. 6, 2001. Nebraska had 21 first downs at halftime en route to 30 for the game, marking the first time Nebraska has had 30 first downs in a game since also posting 30 vs. Texas Tech in 2001.

WCO Makes Exciting Debut in Heartland

Nebraska's West Coast Offense made a strong debut in the season opener against Western Illinois. The Huskers took just 1:53 to reach the end zone on the first drive of the game in the season opener against Western Illinois, mixing the run and the pass. By the end of the first quarter against WIU the stat sheet exhibited the precision, potency and versatility of Nebraska's West Coast Offense.

- ▶ 13 first downs
- ▶ 13 rushing attempts for 110 yards
- ▶ 13 passing attempts for 105 yards
- ▶ 215 total offensive yards, the most by Nebraska in an opening quarter since the Huskers piled up 224 yards in the opening quarter of a 41-31 victory over Texas Tech in 2001 (NU led 21-13 after first quarter)

The offensive execution continued in the second quarter, as NU rolled up 398 yards before half. The Huskers finished the game with 581 total yards, their most since posting 595 total yards in a victory over McNeese State in 2002. The Huskers' 56-point output was the most by Nebraska in 41 games, dating back to a 66-17 victory over Northwestern in the 2000 Alamo Bowl. Nebraska surpassed its point total with 59 points in the win over Baylor.

The "200-200" Club

Nebraska topped 200 yards in both rushing and passing in each of the first two games this fall. Entering the season, Nebraska had not had a game in which it has recorded both 200 yards rushing and passing since Sept. 5, 1998, when the Huskers accomplished the feat against UAB. The consecutive "200-200" games marked the first time the Huskers posted back-to-back games with 200-plus totals in both rushing and passing since the 1993 season. In 1993, Nebraska opened with victories against North Texas and Texas Tech and topped 300 yards in both games on the ground, while producing 215 and 217-yard passing efforts, respectively. The Huskers also had a very balanced attack at Iowa State, just missing the 200-200 mark with 195 yards rushing and 249 yards in the air.

Excellent Balancing Act

Nebraska's version of the West Coast Offense has exhibited excellent balance. The Huskers are averaging 362.2 yards per game overall, including 187.2 yards rushing and 175.0 passing.

Through 10 games, Nebraska has rushed 389 times and thrown 267 passes, roughly a 59-41 run-pass ratio.

The Huskers have generated 51.7 percent of their total offense on the ground and 48.3 percent through the air. If Nebraska continues at its current run-pass ratio, it would mark the Huskers' most balanced offense since 1973.

Ross is Heart and Soul of Husker Offense

Junior I-back Cory Ross is the featured back in Nebraska's offensive attack, and has proven capable of carrying the load for a productive Husker ground attack. Nebraska ranks fifth in the Big 12 and 28th nationally in rushing offense at 187.2 yards per game.

Powered by a 130-yard effort by the 5-6, 195-pound Ross, Nebraska churned out 201 yards against an Oklahoma defense that entered the game ranked first in the Big 12 against the run. His 130 yards rushing against Oklahoma pushed Ross to 1,067 rushing yards in 2004, good for the 27th 1,000-yard rushing season in school history. He is the first Husker I-back to eclipse the 1,000-yard barrier since 2001.

Behind Ross the Huskers have topped 200 yards on the ground four times in 2004, including 363 rushing yards against Western Illinois, its most since rushing for 383 yards in a 38-31 win at Texas A&M in 2002.

While Nebraska has employed a committee-like rotation at I-back for much of the season, Ross has been the chairman of the I-back committee. His play has been especially impressive in the past month after he suffered a painful turf toe injury against Baylor. Entering the season finale with Colorado, the Denver native has averaged 150.0 yards in the past three games, including 194 yards vs. Missouri, 126 at Iowa State and 130 at Oklahoma.

The inspired play by Ross in recent weeks has earned the respect and praise of his own coaches as well as members of the media.

"I don't know what to say. He's shown me throughout the season the willpower to fight through pain and injuries. We always talk about how the wolf is only as strong as the pack, and the pack is only as strong as the wolf. Right now, he is definitely the strong one of the pack and he leads by example."—NU RB Coach Randy Jordan

"The spirit was embodied in Ross, the portrait of pride. Nebraska can corral 100 five-star recruits and they'll be hard-pressed to match the huge heart beating inside this mighty mite."

—Omaha World Herald's Tom Shatel (Nov. 14, 2004), following Ross' 130-yard effort against Oklahoma

Ross is averaging 106.7 yards rushing per game to rank fifth in the Big 12 and 17th nationally. His efforts were highlighted by a career-high 194 yards in the Huskers' 24-3 victory over Missouri. Ross capped the big day with a career-long 86-yard run late in the fourth quarter, the eighth-longest run in school history and the longest by a Nebraska I-back since 1992. Ross' 194 rushing yards were the most by a Nebraska I-back since Dan Alexander rushed for 240 yards against Northwestern in the 2000 Alamo Bowl.

At Oklahoma, he became the first back to top the century mark against the Sooners, rushing 30 times for 130 yards. He has rushed for more than 100 yards six times in 2004 and nine times in his past 14 games. In addition to his performances in the last three games, Ross also topped 100 yards against Western Illinois (125), Southern Miss (169) and Kansas (107).

▶ Ross topped the 1,000-yard career rushing mark against Southern Miss and continues to climb the NU career rushing list. After his 130 yards at Oklahoma, Ross has 1,826 rushing yards, good for 26th in Nebraska history.

▶ In producing nine 100-yard games in the past 14 games since late in the 2004 season, Ross has piled up 1,503 yards (107.4 ypg).

▶ Ross ranks third for the Huskers with 19 receptions for 260 yards. He has a pair of touchdown receptions, including a 74-yard score against Baylor, the longest reception by a Husker back since 1978.

Tracking the Husker Backs

Nebraska's I-backs have combined for 172.5 yards per game in 2004.

Productive I-Back Committee Assisting Ross

Other members of the Nebraska I-back committee have had plenty of input on Nebraska's offense. Redshirt freshman Tierre Green and true freshman Brandon Jackson got off to outstanding starts in the season opener against Western Illinois and have played key roles throughout the year. Junior David Horne gives Nebraska four excellent options at the I-back spot, and gives Nebraska a pair of 1,000-yard career rushers, as he has 1,118 career rushing yards.

▶ Green rushed for 112 yards on seven carries (16.0 ypc) against Western Illinois, including two touchdowns. His rushing total is the most rushing yards by a Husker in a varsity debut since Tony Davis ran for 147 yards in the 1973 season opener against UCLA. Green has totaled 257 yards on 40 carries (6.4 ypc).

▶ The double 100-yard performance by Ross and Green against WIU marked the 70th time in school history that NU has had a pair of 100-yard rushers in the same game.

Husker Passing Game Spreading the Wealth

Nebraska has had six different players lead the team in receiving yardage in a game and six players lead the Huskers in receptions in a game. Nebraska's game-by-game receiving leaders are as follows...

- Western Illinois—Matt Herian, 7 receptions, 98 yards, 2 TD
- Southern Miss—Matt Herian, 8 receptions, 71 yards, 1 TD
- Pittsburgh—Ross Pilkington, 5 receptions, 81 yards, 1 TD
- Kansas—Ross Pilkington, 8 receptions, 113 yards
- Texas Tech—Mark LeFlore, 5 receptions, 110 yards, 1 TD
- Baylor—Cory Ross, 2 receptions, 77 yards, 1 TD
Grant Mulkey, 3 receptions, 75 yards, 1 TD
- Kansas State—Cory Ross, 1 reception, 63 yards
Terrence Nunn, 1 reception, 55 yards
- Missouri—Terrence Nunn, 2 receptions, 10 yards
- Iowa State—Terrence Nunn, 5 receptions, 55 yards
Isaiah Fluellen, 4 receptions, 64 yards
- Oklahoma—Isaiah Fluellen, 3 receptions, 22 yards
Cory Ross, 2 receptions, 29 yards

Huskers Break Pass Attempt Record at ISU

Nebraska threw a school-record 43 passes in its 34-27 loss at Iowa State. The 43 attempts broke the record of 42 attempts on four occasions, including earlier this season against Texas Tech and Southern Miss. Nebraska also attempted 42 passes at Missouri in 1969 and at Iowa State in 1972.

The Huskers rushed 35 times at Iowa State, marking the second time this season Nebraska has had more pass attempts than rushing attempts in a game (also Texas Tech).

Prior to the Texas Tech game, Nebraska had not had more pass attempts than rushes in a game in 35 seasons. The previous game in which Nebraska had more pass attempts than rushing attempts was against Missouri on Oct. 11, 1969. The Huskers' offensive effort that day included 38 rushes and 42 passes.

Husker Ball Security Improving

Nebraska has committed 29 turnovers this season, but has taken better care of the football in the past five games. The Huskers were turnover-free in victories over Baylor and Missouri. Nebraska committed four turnovers in the loss at Kansas State, all in the fourth quarter. At Iowa State, Nebraska's costly fourth-quarter interception was its only miscue of the day, while NU had just one miscue at Oklahoma. Entering the Colorado game, the Huskers have played turnover-free football in 17 of their past 20 quarters since committing seven miscues at Texas Tech.

▶ Jackson combined with Green to carry the bulk of Nebraska's second-half rushing load vs. Western Illinois. Jackson carried 13 times for 79 yards. His 79 yards were the most by an NU true freshman since Horne rushed for 122 yards against Kansas in 2002, and the most by a Husker true freshman in a season opener since at least 1973.

▶ Jackson had a breakout game in Nebraska's victory over Baylor. The native of Horn Lake, Miss., rushed 18 times for 89 yards and his first two career touchdowns. Jackson also sparked Nebraska's kickoff return game with five returns for 158 yards, including returns of 59 and 40 yards, Nebraska's two longest returns of the season. Jackson tallied 247 all-purpose yards in the game, the 10th-best total in school history and second-best by a Nebraska freshman. Jackson added his third kickoff return of 40-plus yards against Missouri (40 yards).

▶ In addition to his effort at Baylor, Jackson led Nebraska in rushing at Kansas State, rushing 11 times for 57 yards and two touchdowns. He has rushed for 370 yards this season, the 10th-most by a Nebraska freshman.

▶ Nebraska had one of its I-backs rush for two touchdowns in four straight games (Baylor to Iowa State).

▶ The I-back committee has combined for 1,703 yards on 331 carries, an average of 5.15 yards per attempt.

NU Passing Record Falls after 31 Years

One of college football's more amazing statistical records came to an end in Nebraska's victory over Baylor. For the first time in school history, the Huskers passed for more than 300 yards. Sophomore quarterback Joe Dailey completed 13-of-20 passes for a school-record 342 yards and five touchdowns.

▶ The Nebraska single-game passing record stood for 387 games.

▶ Dailey moved past 300 yards early in the fourth quarter on a 43-yard strike to tight end Matt Herian. He surpassed the previous Nebraska passing record of 297 yards by Dave Humm against Wisconsin on Sept. 29, 1973.

▶ In his record-setting day, Dailey completed passes to seven receivers, including four players who had more than 60 yards receiving.

▶ Dailey averaged 17.1 yards per attempt and 26.3 yards per completion in the record-setting effort.

▶ Dailey's 65 percent completion rate, plus five touchdowns without an interception resulted in a 291.14 pass efficiency rating, the third-best single-game rating in Nebraska school history.

NU's Top Five Passing Games

Joe Dailey, Oct. 16, 2004 vs. Baylor 342 yards, 13-of-20
Dave Humm, Sept. 29, 1973 vs. Wisconsin 297 yards, 25-of-36
Dave Humm, Oct. 13, 1973 at Missouri 292 yards, 20-of-29
Frank Patrick, Nov. 23, 1967 vs. Oklahoma 290 yards, 22-of-40
Jerry Tagge, Nov. 13, 1971 at Kansas State 285 yards, 20-of-28

Sophomore Dailey Leading NU's West Coast Attack

Sophomore quarterback Joe Dailey has set several passing records during the 2004 season. The Jersey City, N.J. native threw for a Nebraska record 342 yards in the victory over Baylor, including five touchdown passes and no interceptions. Dailey has topped 200 yards passing three other times this season, and has completed 48.6 percent of his passes for 1,719 yards, with 15 touchdowns and 15 interceptions. Among Dailey's passing milestones in 2004 are...

▶ Dailey's 342 passing yards against Baylor marked the first 300-yard passing day in school history and shattered the old NU single-game passing record by 45 yards (297, Dave Humm vs. Wisconsin, 1973). Dailey also tied the school record with five touchdown passes against the Bears, including four before halftime.

▶ Dailey's 218 passing yards against Western Illinois marked the first time a Husker had passed for more than 200 yards in five seasons. Dailey threw for 213 yards in the first half, the most by a Husker player before halftime since Scott Frost threw for 220 yards against Kansas in 1996.

▶ Dailey is the first Husker since World War II to throw six touchdown passes in the first two games of a season.

▶ Dailey's six total touchdowns against Western Illinois tied a Nebraska school record, joining quarterback Gerry Gdowski who accounted for six touchdowns in a 1989 win over Iowa State (4 rush, 2 pass), and I-back Calvin Jones who rushed for six touchdowns at Kansas in 1991.

▶ The 218 passing yards against Western Illinois were the most ever by a Husker in a season opener, and his 420 passing yards in the first two games were the most since at least 1946. The last time a Husker had passed for 200 yards in two straight games prior to Dailey was Vince Ferragamo against TCU (218) and Miami (264) in 1976.

▶ Dailey has 1,719 yards passing this season, fourth on the Nebraska-single season list. Dailey surpassed the 1,000-yard passing mark in six games.

▶ Dailey has tied the Nebraska record for pass attempts in a game (42) twice in 2004.

Husker Football...A Family Tradition

Family is one of the first things that comes to mind in the Nebraska football program. The Ruud family is just one of the families with father-son and brother combinations represented on the 2004 Husker squad.

The brother combination list for 2004 includes: twin brothers Josh (FS) and Daniel Bullocks (2001-present); FS Dan (2000-present) and LB Jamie Burrow (1997-2001); OL Mike (2000-present) and WR Dan Erickson (2003-present); LB Adam (2001-present) and DB Matt Ickes (1998-2001); WR Mark (2002-present) and DB Chris LeFlore (2003-present); LBs Barrett (2001-present) and Bo Ruud (2003-present); CB Andrew (2002-present) and SLB Scott Shanle (1998-2002); FB DeAntae (1999-2003) and Courtney Grixby (2004-present) and LB Chad (2001-present) and TE Clayton Sievers (2004-present). In addition, offensive lineman Cory Timm's older brother, Dustin, is a pitcher for the Husker baseball team.

Second generation Huskers include the Burrows (father Jim played in 1974-75 and was a graduate assistant for NU); LBs Bo and Barrett Ruud (father Tom played in 1972-74 and Ruud's great-grandfather Clarence Swanson played for NU from 1918 to 1921 and is a member of the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame); DE Ty Steinkuhler (father Dean played in 1981-83 and swept both the Outland Trophy and Outland Award in 1983); SS Shane Siegel (father Robert played basketball for NU in 1974-77); OL Newton Lingenfelter (father Bob played for NU in 1975-75-76).

► Getting to the Points

The look of Nebraska's offense has changed in 2004 with a switch to the West Coast Offense. However, the end goal remains the same—putting points on the scoreboard, something Nebraska has never found difficult. The Huskers have a long history of ranking among the nation's leaders in scoring offense and have posted some amazing offensive numbers.

► NU has averaged more than 35 points a game 15 times in the last 18 years.

► NU has averaged 40-or-more points eight times since 1982, including four of the last nine seasons.

► Entering 2004, the Huskers have ranked among the nation's top 10 in scoring average 22 of the last 26 years (since 1978) and finished first on four occasions (1982, 1983, 1994 and 1997).

► Nebraska is 307-2 all time when scoring 35-or-more points, losing only to Oklahoma, 49-35, in 1950 and at Colorado, 62-36, in 2001. Before the loss at Colorado in 2001, NU had won 237 consecutive games when scoring 35-or-more points.

► The last time the Huskers were shut out was a 19-0 loss at Arizona State in 1996. Nebraska has since scored in 112 straight games.

► Nebraska has not been shut out at home since Kansas State shut out the Huskers, 12-0, on Homecoming in 1968 (233 games).

► The Huskers have been shut out just five times since 1962, including once at home during that span. The Huskers have not been shut out by a conference opponent since a 27-0 loss at Oklahoma in 1973. NU was shut out by Miami in the 1992 Orange Bowl (22-0), the only time the Huskers have been shut out in a bowl game.

► The Huskers have scored 30-or-more points in six of their last nine bowl games, including a school and NCAA bowl-record 66 vs. Northwestern in the 2000 Alamo Bowl.

► Nebraska posted two shutouts in 2003, and has 102 shutouts in school history.

'55 Orange Bowl Team Gathers for Kansas Game

The Nebraska football program honored the 50th anniversary of its first Orange Bowl team when the Huskers hosted Kansas. The 1954 Husker team that played in the 1955 Orange Bowl was the first of a record 17 NU teams to participate in the Orange Bowl. Thirty-four members of the 1954 team took part in the weekend's festivities, in addition to Head Coach Bill Glassford. The Huskers lost 34-7 to Duke in the 1955 Orange Bowl. The 1954 Cornhuskers finished second behind Oklahoma in the Big Seven race, but went to the Orange Bowl under the no-repeat rule.

Loss of Tight End Herian Impacts Husker Offense

Junior tight end Matt Herian has been one of Nebraska's key offensive threats each of the past three seasons. The 6-5, 240-pound Herian hauled in seven touchdown catches in his first two seasons, including touchdowns of 80 yards (2002) and 58 yards (2003) against Colorado. Herian earned All-Big 12 honors as a sophomore, and this season he was one of the main beneficiaries of Nebraska's new offensive attack, catching a team-leading 24 passes before suffering a fractured left leg against Missouri.

The junior caught seven passes for 98 yards and a pair of touchdowns in the opener against Western Illinois, and tied the Nebraska single-game record for receptions by a tight end with eight catches for 71 yards and a touchdown a week later against Southern Miss. Before his injury, Herian put together a strong 2004 season, including...

► Herian's seven and eight-catch efforts to open the season rank as two of the five best receiving days by a tight end in school history. Herian's eight receptions tied Dennis Morrison's eight receptions at Colorado on Oct. 22, 1966, and his seven-catch effort is tied for third on the single-game tight end list.

► Herian's 15 receptions in the first two games were the most in a two-game stretch by any Husker since Johnny Rodgers caught 15 passes in consecutive games at Kansas State (10) and at Oklahoma (5) in 1971.

Herian, a native of Pierce, Neb., ranks second in school history for receiving yards among tight ends. Herian's 312 receiving yards this season pushed his career receiving yardage total to 1,097 yards. He is the 12th Husker with 1,000 career receiving yards and just the third tight end. He passed Junior Miller (1,045) in career receiving yards against Baylor and will enter his senior year just 53 yards shy of career tight end leader Tracey Wistrom (1,150).

Herian's 53 career receptions are tied for the fourth-most by a Husker tight end, and just eight shy of the career tight end record of 61 catches, set by Jerry List from 1970 to 1972. Additionally, Herian is tied for 19th on the overall receptions list, just eight catches shy of moving into the top 10.

Koch Adding to Husker Walk-On Punting Success

Junior punter Sam Koch had one of the toughest tasks of any Husker entering the 2004 season. A walk-on from Seward, Neb., Koch replaced three-year starter and 2003 All-American Kyle Larson as Nebraska's starting punter. Larson closed his Nebraska career in outstanding fashion, averaging a school-record 45.1 yards per punt in 2004.

Koch has performed well this season, most notably the past three weeks. Koch ranks fifth in the Big 12 averaging 41.0 yards per punt. Against Missouri, Koch averaged 39.5 yards on 10 punts on an extremely windy day. He pinned the Tigers inside their own 20 five times and also had a career-long 65-yard punt. Against Iowa State, Koch averaged 44.5 yards on six punts and pinned ISU inside its 20-yard line four times. He placed three punts inside the Oklahoma 20 last week, giving him 12 placements inside the 20 in the past three games and 24 this season.

The situation Koch faced was not new to the recent Husker punters. Nebraska has had four straight walk-on punters since 1995, and each of them has performed admirably. Jesse Kosch was Nebraska's starting punter for three straight seasons from 1995 to 1997 and finished his career with a 41.92-yard average to rank third on Nebraska's career punting chart. Kosch was followed by Bill Lafleur, who started one season and ranked fifth nationally in punting in 1998 at 44.94 yards per boot. Lafleur was followed by Dan Hadenfeldt, who handled the chores in 1999 and 2000 and holds Nebraska's career punting average record at 44.54 yards on 104 career punts. Larson was not fazed by the task of replacing Hadenfeldt, as he finished his career averaging 43.67 yards on 195 career punts.

1994 National Championship Team Celebrates 10-Year Anniversary

Nebraska celebrated the 10th anniversary of its run to the 1994 national championship in conjunction with the 24-3 win over Missouri on Oct. 30. More than 90 members of the 1994 team that went 13-0 and defeated Miami in the Orange Bowl were on hand for festivities that included a Friday night reception and a Tunnel Walk reunion on Saturday before kickoff.

The 1994 Huskers overcame injuries and adversity to give Head Coach Tom Osborne his first of three national championships. The Huskers used three starting quarterbacks in their championship run. Coach Osborne was joined by former assistant coaches Charlie McBride, Milt Tenopir and Dan Young as coaching staff members on hand for the weekend. Captains of the 1994 team were offensive linemen Zach Wiegert and Rob Zatechka, linebacker Ed Stewart and defensive tackle Terry Connealy.

Huskers Continue Nation's Best Win Streak in Season Openers

Nebraska continued a long run of dominance in season openers with a 56-17 win over Western Illinois. The Huskers have been victorious in their last 19 season openers since a 17-13 setback against Florida State in 1985 at Memorial Stadium. Nebraska's 19-game win streak in season openers tops the nation, followed by Kansas State and Florida with 15 each.

Nebraska has won each of those 19 games by at least 10 points, and owns an 84-26-5 all-time record in season openers. Since 1973, the Huskers are 27-4-1 in season openers, including 22-2 at Memorial Stadium, with losses to only Florida State in 1985 and Washington State in 1977. In all-time home openers, Nebraska is 93-17-5, including 65-14-3 at Memorial Stadium. The Huskers are 29-2 in their last 31 home openers.

Nebraska A Regular Supplier to NFL

Nebraska had five players selected in the 2004 NFL Draft, led by Demorrio Williams who was a fourth-round selection of the Atlanta Falcons. In addition to Williams, Jammal Lord (Houston), Josh Sewell (Denver), Trevor Johnson (New York Jets) and Ryon Bingham (San Diego) had their names called during the 2004 draft. Six other Huskers signed free-agent contracts with NFL teams after the draft.

The Huskers had a total of 37 former players on 2004 NFL opening day rosters. In all, 21 teams had at least one former Husker on their 2004 opening day roster, with San Diego and Houston with four former Huskers each, while Kansas City has three former Nebraska players on its roster. Kansas City Chiefs All-Pro offensive guard Will Shields and Oakland Raiders defensive tackle John Parrella are Nebraska's most experienced NFL veterans, both entering their 12th season in the league in 2004. Below is a list of former Huskers currently on NFL rosters.

Week 10 Husker NFL Highlights

Among the notable performances from week 10 of the NFL season by former Huskers were...

Ahman Green, RB, Green Bay—Green rushed for 145 yards in the Packers' 34-31 victory over Minnesota that pulled Green Bay into a first-place tie with the Vikings in the NFC North.

Josh Brown, PK, Seattle—Brown was a perfect 4-of-4 on field goal attempts in the Seahawks' loss to St. Louis, hitting from 28, 30, 45 and 41 yards.

Construction at Memorial Stadium to Continues

Nebraska is in the midst of a major building and stadium improvement project on the north end of Memorial Stadium. The $50 million project includes an addition of more than 6,000 seats to Memorial Stadium, which will raise Nebraska's average crowd to 80,000 fans per game.

The project also includes the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex, which will include a new locker room for the Husker football program. The building will include new football offices, a new strength complex, new training room, water therapy pools and administrative offices. The improvement project also features a new indoor workout facility, giving the Huskers two full-sized indoor practice areas adjacent to two outdoor grass fields. The project will not be completed until the 2006 season, which has led to a few changes for Husker fans and opponents this fall and throughout the 2005 season.

The demolition of the north fieldhouse has forced the relocation of opposing teams to East Stadium. Husker opponents now locker in the south end of the East Stadium. The opponent travels under East Stadium and enters and exits the field from the northeast corner. Nebraska will continue to enter the playing field from the southwest corner for the next two seasons, before moving to the North Stadium for the 2006 season.

Husker fans have also seen minor changes in their game-day routine. Gate 14 on the northeast corner of the stadium has been combined with Gate 15. Fans previously using that entrance now use Gate 15.

Husker Personnel, Injury Update

Nebraska took a significant hit on the injury front against Missouri when All-Big 12 tight end Matt Herian went down with a fractured left leg. Herian was injured while blocking on a second-quarter rushing play. Senior Dusty Keiser has seen significant action all season at tight end and moved into the top position at tight end. Redshirt freshman J.B. Phillips had seen more action in recent weeks and his role expanded in Herian's absence.

Sophomore quarterback Jordan Adams, a transfer from Grossmont (Calif.) College, has not played this season. Adams had his spleen removed on Friday, Aug. 27, returned to practice on a limited basis the week before the Pittsburgh contest and is at full speed, but is redshirting.

Several Husker newcomers have made their mark in 2004. Six Husker first-timers made their debut in the season opener and eight true freshmen have played through 10 games. True freshman wide receiver Terrence Nunn was the first Husker rookie to make noise in 2004. Nunn was in the starting lineup in the opener, and became the first Husker offensive player to start the first game of his true freshman season since World War II. Other Husker offensive newcomers who saw action against Western Illinois included true freshman quarterback Ryan Goodman, true freshman I-back Brandon Jackson and junior college transfers Shamus McKoy (WR) and Cornealius Thomas (OT). Defensively, true freshman Cortney Grixby made his Husker debut at cornerback against Western Illinois and started the Pittsburgh and Kansas games at right corner in place of the injured Lornell McPherson.

Three other true freshmen have made their debuts since the season opener. Two frosh made their debuts on special teams in game two, including receiver Santino Panico who is serving as NU's punt returner and linebacker Lance Brandenburgh who has played on Husker coverage units. Quarterback Beau Davis played the majority of the second half in Nebraska's loss at Texas Tech.

NCAA-Record 268 Consecutive Sellouts

Nebraska boasts an incredible NCAA-record 268 consecutive sellouts at Memorial Stadium. The sellout streak dates back to Hall of Fame Coach Bob Devaney's first year in 1962 (vs. Missouri on Nov. 3). Notre Dame is second in all-time consecutive sellouts with 179, 89 fewer than Nebraska.

The Huskers are 237-30 during the 267 sellouts. The mark includes a 38-20 record against ranked teams. Nebraska is 5-0 in the five milestone sellouts during that period (50th, 100th, 150th, 200th and 250th sellouts), including a 24-7 win over No. 2 Colorado on Oct. 29, 1994 (No. 200) and a 44-13 victory over Utah State on Sept. 7, 2002 (No. 250).

The fan support at Memorial Stadium has led to a dominant home field advantage for the Huskers in Lincoln. Nebraska is a remarkable 148-14 at Memorial Stadium since 1981, with eight of those losses coming against teams that finished the season ranked in the top eight of the Associated Press Poll.

Memorial Stadium Magic

Nebraska's record home sellout streak is testament to the Huskers playing in front of the nation's best college football fans. On the field, Nebraska has rewarded the loyalty of the Husker Nation with incredible success at Memorial Stadium through the years. Nebraska had a nation-leading 26-game home winning streak end with a loss to Texas in November, 2002. The loss ended the third-longest home winning streak in school history and Nebraska's third home win streak of 20 games or more since 1980, including a school-record 47-game home winning streak from 1991 to 1998.

The Huskers finished 6-1 at home in 2003, and Nebraska is 105-7 at home the last 16 years, including a pair of losses to teams that went on to win shares of the national championship—Colorado in 1990 and Washington in 1991. The Huskers are 472-126-20 (.780, 618 games, 115 years) in Lincoln, 347-103-13 (.763, 463 games, 82 years) in Memorial Stadium (since 1923). The 2002 season marked the first time Nebraska has lost two home games (Texas, Colorado) in a season since 1980.

Since 1986 (19 seasons), NU is 116-9 in Lincoln, with losses to Colorado (twice), Washington, Oklahoma (twice), Texas (twice), Kansas State and Southern Miss. Nebraska has not been shut out at home since a 12-0 loss to Kansas State in 1968 (233 games). NU has posted 40 unbeaten and untied home seasons. Husker faithful set a new attendance record in Memorial Stadium in 2002 against Texas with 78,268 fans.

NU Among Leaders in AP National Titles

Notre Dame leads the nation by winning eight Associated Press national titles since 1936, with Oklahoma (7), Alabama (6), Miami (5), Nebraska (4) and Minnesota (4) rounding out the top five. While the Huskers were awarded the national title by the coaches in 1997, NU finished second to Michigan in the AP poll. In 1970, NU was awarded the AP national title, but not the coaches (Texas was first, Ohio State second and NU third) as the final poll was released before the bowl games were played. In the coaches poll (since 1950), Nebraska is tied for third with USC and Miami with four titles, behind Alabama and Oklahoma with six apiece.

Huskers Lead Conference in Crowns

Nebraska and Oklahoma are the only teams to capture two Big 12 titles in the first eight years of the Big 12 Conference. The Huskers won titles in 1997 and 1999, and appeared in the league title game in 1996. Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas State have also made three Big 12 title game appearances. In the last 11 seasons, Nebraska has won five conference crowns (three Big Eight, two Big 12). Nebraska has won 43 football conference championships overall, including eight under Coach Bob Devaney, 13 under Coach Tom Osborne and one under Coach Frank Solich.

Oklahoma has won 35 conference championships to rank second behind NU among conference schools.

Huskers Own An Unprecedented Winning Tradition

Nebraska, the nation's third-winningest program all time (fourth by percentage), boasts a 786-316-40 record in 1,142 games (.706) in 115 years of football. In the last 36 years, NU is tops, posting a record of 352-75-5 for an .821 winning percentage (432 games), an average of nearly 10 wins per year.

NU has won 10-or-more games 24 times since 1962, has gone undefeated and untied through the regular season seven times, played in 13 national title games (for at least one of the teams) and won the championship five times. Since the first Nebraska season in 1890, Husker teams have won 11 or more games 12 times, including seven of the last 11 years. NU has won 12 or more games seven times, and 13 games three times (1971, 1994 and 1997).

Nebraska (702), Michigan (705), Alabama (728) and Notre Dame (736) were the only four programs to win 700 games in the 1900s. NU became the first Division I team to win 100 or more games in consecutive decades, ranking first in the 1980s (103-20-0, .837) and second in the 1990s (108-16-1, .890) and posted a nation's best 309-56-5 record in the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s.

NU One Win from Qualifying for NCAA-Record 36th Consecutive Bowl Appearance

Nebraska needs one more victory to reach six wins and qualify the Huskers for an NCAA-record 36th consecutive bowl trip. Michigan's streak of consecutive bowl appearances reached 29 last year, the second-longest streak in NCAA history. Nebraska's 42 overall bowl appearances is tied for fourth best with USC, trailing Alabama's 51, Tennessee's 44 and Texas' 43.

Nebraska played the first of its 42 bowls in the Rose Bowl, when No. 7 Nebraska lost to No. 2 Stanford, 21-13, following the 1940 season. NU's 35 consecutive bowls began with a 45-6 win over Georgia in the 1969 Sun Bowl. The Huskers are 21-21 all-time in bowl games.

NU Owns 42 Consecutive Winning Regular Seasons

The Huskers own a remarkable 42 consecutive winning regular seasons and have posted 41 winning seasons in the last 42 years. Nebraska needs one more victory to reach a 43rd consecutive winning regular season. Nebraska saw its streak of 40 consecutive winning seasons end with a 7-7 mark in 2002. Nebraska's streak of 40 consecutive winning seasons fell two years short of Notre Dame's NCAA-record run of 42 straight winning campaigns from 1889 to 1932.

Nebraska's 42 straight non-losing seasons is tied for second all-time in NCAA Division I-A, with Notre Dame's 42 (1889-1932), trailing only Penn State's 49 (1939-87). Since Nebraska's 42-year .500-or-better streak began, the Huskers have averaged nearly 10 wins per season with a 420-93-5 record (.816).

All-Americans Call Nebraska Home

Free safety Josh Bullocks and punter Kyle Larson are the latest players to add their names to Nebraska's prestigious list of All-Americans, receiving honors in 2003. Larson was named a first-team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association, while Bullocks was tabbed by The Sporting News.

Larson and Bullocks' All-America selections added to Nebraska's long list of All-Americans, beginning with tackle Vic Halligan in 1914. The Huskers have had at least one All-American in all but two (1991, 1998) of the past 34 years. Overall, Nebraska has seen 92 different players earn first-team All-America honors from at least one recognized source with 14 winning double honors for a total of 106 first-team awards. Nebraska had its most All-Americans in one season when six Huskers earned first-team honors in the 1971 national championship campaign. The offensive line is Nebraska's most honored position, with 26 players earning 31 first-team All-America certificates.

Huskers Continue Nebraska Tradition of Award-Winning Excellence in Classroom

The Husker football program has a tradition of winning that can be matched by few in college football. Off the field, Nebraska has established a tradition of academic excellence that is matched by no one.

► Huskers Continue to Lead Nation in Academic Honors

Nebraska continues to lead the nation in CoSIDA Academic All-Americans for all sports and all teams with 217; in first-team winners for all sports with 109; and also leads the nation in football academic honor winners with 59 first-team certificates and 81 football all-teams certificates. The 217 overall honorees is 61 better than second-place Notre Dame, while the 59 football honorees is 21 more than second-place Notre Dame's 38.

The Husker football program also leads the nation with nine NCAA Today's Top Eight Award winners, 31 NCAA postgraduate scholarship winners, including Judd Davies in 2004, and 20 National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Scholar-Athletes, most recently Chris Kelsay in 2002.

► Kriewald, Cooper Playing 2004 Season as Graduate Students

Two members of Nebraska's 20-player senior class will compete in their senior seasons as graduate students. Fullback Steve Kriewald picked up his degree in construction management in May. Linebacker Ira Cooper graduated with his degree in sociology at the close of summer school in August. In addition to Kriewald and Cooper, five Huskers are on track to finish their undergraduate work in December. Another 12 are scheduled to graduate in May of 2005, putting 19 of 20 Husker seniors on track to earn their degrees by next spring.

Nebraska Maintains Remarkable Win Streak Against Jayhawks

Nebraska's hard-fought 14-8 victory over Kansas on Oct. 2 was the Huskers' 36th straight win in the series vs. the Jayhawks and their 18th straight against Kansas in Lincoln. Nebraska's 36-game win streak in the series is the second-longest win streak ever against a Division I-A opponent, trailing only Notre Dame's 40 straight victories over Navy (also active). The six-point victory over Kansas was Nebraska's slimmest margin of victory over the Jayhawks since a 21-20 victory in Lawrence in 1993. The win over Kansas was also Nebraska's 29th victory in its last 30 conference openers. The two teams have met in 99 consecutive seasons, the longest continuous series in Division I-A.

NU Continues Happy Homecoming Tradition

Nebraska's 24-3 victory over Missouri on Homecoming continued the Huskers' dominance in front of the alumni. Nebraska has now won 36 straight Homecoming contests since a 12-0 loss to Kansas State in 1968. That game also marked the last time Nebraska was shut out at home. The Huskers improved to 71-19-4 all-time on Homecoming with the win over Missouri and has won 17 of its last 19 Homecoming contests by 17 points or more. Nebraska is now 11-5-1 all-time against Missouri on Homecoming.

Brandon Koch Receives Jake Young Scholarship

Nebraska offensive guard Brandon Koch was awarded the Jake Young Memorial Scholarship in pre-game ceremonies before the Kansas contest. Young, a Husker two-time All-American and academic All-American, was tragically killed in October, 2002, in a terrorist bomb in Bali. The Jake Young Memorial Scholarship was made possible by generous donations from friends and family, Husker fans across the nation and by a generous donation from Lynn and Dana Roper. The Roper's were Young's Lincoln parents.

Originally a walk-on, Koch was awarded a scholarship near the completion of spring ball and is Nebraska's starting left guard. A 2003 first-team academic All-Big 12 selection, Koch carries a 3.119 grade-point average in secondary education. He has also been named to the Big 12 Commissioner's honor roll four times during his collegiate career and was an honorable-mention pick on the 2003 Brook Berringer Citizenship Team.

Ruud Adds Berringer Scholarship to Long List of Accomplishments

Nebraska senior linebacker Barrett Ruud was presented with the Brook Berringer Memorial Scholarship before the start of the Baylor contest. The scholarship is named in honor of Berringer, a former Nebraska quarterback who was killed in a private plane crash in April of 1996. The endowment was established by a benefit concert given on Aug. 27, 1997, by the members of the country singing group, Sawyer Brown, who were friends of Berringer. Criteria for the Brook Berringer Memorial Endowed Scholarship include the following: Must be a senior scholarship football student-athlete; must be involved in community service along with high ideals, excellent character and integrity.

Ruud is a two-time first-team academic All-Big 12 selection and is a regular volunteer in the community. Ruud has been a speaker during American Education Week and is one of the featured members of the Fall Tour of Excellence, which is being held on Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 18-19 during Nebraska's fall break.

Kriewald Receives Noble Scholarship

Senior fullback Steve Kriewald was recently awarded the honorary Dave Noble Devaney Society Memorial Scholarship. The Noble Scholarship is given to a University of Nebraska scholarship football student-athlete who has demonstrated a high level of athletic and academic achievement, effective leadership skills, integrity, and a commitment to excellence in all endeavors. The Dave Noble Scholarship was established in 2003 in memory of Dave Noble, by his daughter Joanne and her husband Robert Berkshire of Omaha and was first awarded in 2003 to fullback Judd Davies. Dave was a native Nebraskan from Omaha and lettered for the Huskers in 1921-22-23 as a halfback.

► 4.0 GPAs not Uncommon to Husker Football Team

Three Husker players carry a perfect 4.0 cumulative grade-point average into the fall semester. Senior linebacker Chad Sievers (business administration) has completed his first eight semesters of college without a blemish on his report card. In addition to Sievers, sophomore offensive lineman Kurt Mann and sophomore fullback Dane Todd have each completed four semesters of college with perfect 4.0 grade-point averages.

During the spring 2004 semester, a total of seven players had 4.0 grade-point averages. Joining the three players listed above were quarterback Garth Glissman, defensive lineman Nathan Krug, safety Brandon Rigoni and safety Blake Tiedtke. A total of nine players had perfect 4.0 semesters in the fall of 2003.

► Six Huskers Named to Academic All-District VII Squad

Six members of the Nebraska football team have been named to the Academic All-District VII Football Team—University Division as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). Four of those honorees were named to the first team and now advance to the ballot for CoSIDA Academic All-America honors.

Nebraska had two first-team selections on offense and two on the defensive side of the football, and three of the Huskers' first-team honorees maintain a perfect 4.0 cumulative grade-point average. The Huskers' selections were led by senior linebacker Chad Sievers who maintains a perfect 4.0 grade-point average in business management and is on track to graduate in December. This marks the second consecutive year Sievers has been a first-team academic All-District VII selection.

Senior defensive back Kellen Huston is also on track to earn his undergraduate degree in December. The native of Ankeny, Iowa, carries a 3.90 cumulative grade-point average in exercise science and plans to attend medical school following graduation.

On the offensive side of the ball, a pair of Nebraska sophomores were honored. Fullback Dane Todd, a Lincoln native, carries a 4.0 grade-point average in biological sciences, while fellow sophomore Kurt Mann, a native of Grand Island, Neb., also has a perfect grade-point average while majoring in mechanized systems management.

Two Husker seniors earned second-team academic All-District VII honors. Linebacker Barrett Ruud, Nebraska's all-time leading tackler, was named to the team with a 3.36 cumulative grade-point average in management. Ruud is scheduled to graduate next May, completing his undergraduate work in four years. Place-kicker Sandro DeAngelis was also a second-team selection with a 3.687 grade-point average in natural science. DeAngelis will earn his degree next May.

► Huskers Top Big 12 in Graduation Rates

For the fifth consecutive year, the University of Nebraska Athletic Department leads the Big 12 Conference in the Exhausted Eligibility Graduation Rate. Nebraska's rate increased by another percentage point to 91 percent, posting an improved rate for the fifth straight year. The Exhausted Eligibility Rate surveys the graduation of scholarship student-athletes who entered the University of Nebraska from 1988-89 through 1997-98 and exhausted their athletic eligibility at the University of Nebraska.

Nebraska's Exhausted Eligibility Graduation Rate is eight percentage points higher than the national average (83 percent). NU's four-class rate for football student-athletes entering in 1994, 1995, 1996 and 1997 ranks second in the Big 12, at 63 percent, 10 percentage points higher than the national average and nine points higher than the UNL average of 54 percent. Nebraska is the only Big 12 University that has ranked among the top three in the conference since the Big 12 was formed in 1996.

Nebraska's one-class average, for football student-athletes entering school in 1997, is 72 percent, 17 percentage points higher than the national average and 13 points higher than the UNL average of 59 percent.

Two members of this year's senior class (Steve Kriewald, Ira Cooper) have already earned their degrees with nine more set to pick up their diplomas in December.

► Nebraska Unveils Hall of Distinction

The University of Nebraska Athletic Department unveiled the Hall of Distinction on Thursday, Sept. 2 with a ribbon-cutting ceremony. The Hall of Distinction, which is located in the Hewitt Center in West Memorial Stadium, honors every Husker letterwinner who has graduated and those who have earned national academic honors.

Nebraska men's sports date back to 1890 and its women's sports began nearly 30 years ago. During that span, 4,625 letterwinners have earned their degrees. Nebraska currently carries a 91 percent graduation rate for student-athletes who complete their eligibility at Nebraska.

The graduation display, which honors every student-athlete who lettered and earned their undergraduate degree, is in the same hallway as the academic All-American portraits, and a display honoring Nebraska's nation-leading 14 NCAA Today's Top Eight Award winners. Since the award began, Nebraska leads the nation in academic All-Americans with 217 first-, second-, and third-team honorees from all sports and also leads the nation in with 109 first-team academic All-Americans.

NU Athletic Director Steve Pederson said the display was the brainchild of Associate Athletic Director for Academic Programs and Student Services Dennis Leblanc. Approximately two years of research went into tracking the letterwinners to verify names, graduation dates and degrees.

A Look at the Numbers

Scoring Drives

Nebraska has produced 38 scoring drives this season, with 22 coming in five plays or less, including seven one-play drives. Overall, the Huskers have scored 32 touchdowns and kicked six field goals in their 146 drives this season. NU has 17 rushing touchdowns and 15 passing touchdowns. NU's 38 scoring drives (32 TDs, 6 FG) have covered a total of 2,010 yards in 206 plays in a total of 73:50, for an average scoring drive that has covered 52.9 yards in just 5.4 plays and 1:57.

The Huskers' longest scoring drive in terms of yardage went 92 yards in just two plays and 0:54 against Missouri. Nebraska put together a 15-play, 77-yard drive that took 5:43 against Iowa State, their third drive of 10-or-more plays this season. Nebraska's shortest drive covered two yards on one play and took just three seconds against Pittsburgh. The Huskers added a one-play, six-yard drive that took six seconds against the Panthers.

Oklahoma tied Texas Tech, Kansas State and Iowa State for an opponent season-long with a 14-play opening drive. OU's drive took an opponent long 6:44. ISU's 14-play drive covered an opponent long 93 yards.

Long Season Plays (20 or more yards)

The Huskers have produced 68 plays that have covered 20 yards or more, including 23 long passes, 17 long runs and 28 long returns. Quarterback Joe Dailey connected with wide receiver Mark LeFlore on a 74-yard touchdown pass at Texas Tech for the Huskers' longest pass play of the season, then matched that a week later against Baylor on a 74-yard score to I-back Cory Ross. Ross sprinted 86 yards against Missouri for NU's longest run from scrimmage this season, and the eighth-longest run in NU history. Freshman I-back Brandon Jackson contributed NU's longest kickoff return of the season with his 59-yarder against Baylor. Junior strong safety Daniel Bullocks unleashed NU's longest interception return of the year with his 58-yard return against Western Illinois. Kade Pittman added NU's longest punt return (36 yards vs. WIU).

The Huskers have yielded 65 long plays to the opposition, including 37 long passes, 21 long returns and seven long rushes. Western Illinois' James Norris erupted for a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, which tied for the third-longest kickoff return in school history by an NU opponent. Pittsburgh's Marcus Furman added a 96-yard kickoff return for a score. Southern Miss' Naton Stewart had the longest interception return by an opponent this season with a 49-yarder for a touchdown. Texas Tech quarterback Sonny Cumbie connected with Jarrett Hicks for an 80-yard touchdown and the longest pass play of the season by an opponent. Kansas State's Darren Sproles owns the two longest runs by an opposing back with carries of 34 and 30 yards.

Starting Field Position

Nebraska enjoyed its largest field position advantage of the season with a 14.5 yard-per-drive edge against Missouri. The Huskers produced a season-best average start at their own 42.1, while holding Missouri to an average start at its own 27.6. The Huskers buried the Tigers inside the 20 five times. Nebraska also forced Iowa State to start drives inside the 20 five times, while limiting the Cyclones to an opponent season-low average start at its own 22.9.

Against Pittsburgh, the Huskers started a season-high five drives in Panther territory, including three starts inside the Panthers' 10. NU's best starting field position of the season came at the Panthers' 2. The Huskers added a Daniel Bullocks touchdown return on a botched punt attempt at Kansas State, and an Adam Ickes touchdown return on Andrew Shanle's blocked punt against Missouri.

Western Illinois produced an opponent season-best average start at its own 45.8-yard line, while NU managed an average drive start at its own 36.6. WIU established an opponent season high with six drives on NU's half of the field, which Texas Tech and Kansas State both matched. The Red Raiders gave the Huskers their largest starting yard-line disadvantage this season. Texas Tech produced an average start at its own 44.4, while limiting NU to a season-low average start at its own 26.3 (-18.1). NU opponents own three returns for touchdowns, including kickoff returns by Western Illinois and Pittsburgh and an interception return for a score by Southern Miss.

NU has started 29 drives inside its own 20 this season, including eight at Kansas State, while opponents have started 36 drives inside their own 20.

All-Big 12 Candidate

#4—Cory Ross

► I-Back, Jr., 5-6, 195
► Denver, Colo.

- Ranks Fifth in Big 12 and 17th Nationally in Rushing Yards Per Game (106.7 ypg)
- 26th in NU Career Rushing (1,826 yards)

2004

Junior I-back Cory Ross became NU's go-to-runner late last season and has been impressive in 2004. Ross posted three 100-yard rushing games late last season and has six 100-yard games in 2004, including each of the past three games.

The Denver native rushed for 130 yards on 30 carries against Oklahoma, the most yards rushing against the No. 2 Sooners this season. Ross' effort in Norman pushed his season rushing total to 1,067 yards, marking the 27th 1,000-yard rushing season in school history.

The 5-6, 195-pound Ross opened this season with 125 yards on just 13 carries against Western Illinois, then posted 169 yards against Southern Miss. He picked up his third 100-yard game of the season versus Kansas when he rushed for 107 yards. He also had the first touchdown reception of his career against the Jayhawks. Ross had a career-high 194 yards and two touchdowns in the Huskers' 24-3 win over Missouri, then followed with 126 yards at Iowa State, before his 130-yard effort against Oklahoma.

Ross ranks 17th nationally in rushing yards per game at 106.7 yards per contest. Ross has proven to be an all-around back, catching 19 passes, including a pair of touchdowns, out of the Husker backfield.

Ross played sparingly in 2003, before coming off the bench in the second half at Kansas and rushing for 108 yards. He followed that up with 100-plus yard-outings against Colorado and Michigan State, and carried a school-record 37 times against the Spartans in the Alamo Bowl. Ross has more than 1,500 rushing yards in the past 14 games and has 1,826 career rushing yards to rank 26th on the NU career charts.

Ross Game-by-Game in 2004

Western Illinois—Ross carried 13 times for 125 yards in the Huskers' 56-17 victory, part of a 363-yard rushing effort by the Huskers. Ross also caught two passes for 32 yards.

Southern Miss—Ross rushed for 169 rushing yards on 27 carries in Nebraska's 21-17 loss to Southern Miss. Ross also caught a career-high five passes for 27 yards. In the game, he became the 52nd 1,000-yard rusher in school history on a 52-yard run.

Pittsburgh—Ross rushed 24 times for 73 yards in Nebraska's 24-17 victory, and scored his first touchdown of the year, a two-yard first quarter run.

Kansas—Ross posted his third 100-yard game of the young season with 19 carries for 107 yards and a touchdown against the Jayhawks. Ross also caught three passes for 37 yards, and had his first career receiving touchdown.

Texas Tech—Ross rushed 15 times for 49 yards and also had one reception.

Baylor—Ross rushed 14 times for 51 yards and a seven-yard touchdown. As a receiver, he caught two passes for 77 yards, including a 74-yard touchdown. Ross' 74-yard catch is the longest by a Nebraska back since 1978.

Kansas State—Ross carried 16 times for 43 yards against KSU, and also caught a 63-yard pass out of the backfield to set up Nebraska's first score of the day.

Missouri—Ross rushed for a career-high 194 yards on 19 carries, including a pair of touchdowns. Ross' 86-yard touchdown scamper in the fourth quarter was the eighth-longest run in school history and the longest by an NU I-back in 12 seasons. His 194 yards rushing were the most by a Husker I-back in four years.

Iowa State—Ross rushed for 126 yards on 19 carries and scored his sixth touchdown of the season. He also caught three passes out of the Nebraska backfield.

Oklahoma—Ross ran 30 times for 130 yards against the Sooners, becoming the first back to top 100 yards against Oklahoma in 2004. He also caught two passes for 29 yards.

All-Big 12 Candidate

#14—Daniel Bullocks

- ▶ Strong Safety, Jr., 6-1, 205
- ▶ Chattanooga, Tenn.

- ▶ 2003 Honorable-Mention All-Big 12
- ▶ Seventh Nationally in Interceptions (0.50 pg)

2004

Junior strong safety Daniel Bullocks teams with his twin brother, Josh, to give Nebraska one of the nation's best safety tandems. The older of the twins by one minute, Daniel received fewer accolades than his twin entering the season, but his play in 2004 has been just as strong as the All-American.

Bullocks opened the year with interceptions in each of the first two games, and has picked off three passes since, including his fifth of the year at Iowa State. Bullocks has made the most of his interceptions, returning them 187 yards, including a 58-yard return against Western Illinois.

Daniel Bullocks' five interceptions have helped set the tone for a Blackshirt defense that has picked off 13 opponent passes, tied for the 18th-most in the country. Bullocks' five interceptions are a team-high, and he is tied for seventh nationally in interceptions per game.

A hard hitter, Bullocks is also strong against the run and a key in several of Nebraska's blitz packages. Bullocks has registered 50 tackles in 2004, including a season-high eight tackles each of the past two weeks. He also has four tackles for loss, including a 12-yard sack in a 24-17 victory over Pittsburgh. Bullocks scored his first career touchdown at Kansas State when he returned a botched Kansas State punt attempt 10 yards for a third-quarter touchdown.

Bullocks has been a key part of a talented Nebraska secondary each of the past three seasons. A year ago, he earned honorable-mention All-Big 12 honors, while compiling 69 tackles, the most among Nebraska defensive backs.

Bullocks Game-by-Game in 2004

Western Illinois—Bullocks started the season on a strong note, intercepting a pass and returning it 58 yards for one of Nebraska's five takeaways. He also made a pair of tackles, including a four-yard tackle for loss.

Southern Miss—Bullocks intercepted his second pass of the season in the third quarter and returned it 16 yards. The pick set up an NU touchdown that gave the Huskers a 17-9 lead. Bullocks also made six solo tackles and added a hurry.

Pittsburgh—Bullocks was a key part of a defense that harassed Panther quarterback Tyler Palko all afternoon. He finished with three solo tackles, including a 12-yard sack and added a quarterback hurry.

Kansas—Bullocks broke up a career-high four passes as the NU defense batted down 17 Jayhawk pass attempts. Bullocks also made four tackles and had two hurries of KU quarterback Adam Barmann.

Texas Tech—Bullocks made four tackles to go along with an interception, and also broke up a pass in the matchup with the Red Raiders.

Baylor—Bullocks had a season-high seven tackles, and picked off his fourth pass of the season, returning the ball 44 yards deep into Baylor territory. He also had his sixth pass breakup of the season.

Kansas State—Bullocks had just one tackle in the game, but scored his first career touchdown in the third quarter when he scooped up a fumbled Kansas State punt snap and ran 10 yards for a touchdown. Bullocks also had an interception nullified because of penalty in the game.

Missouri—Bullocks had seven tackles against the Tigers, including two tackles for loss. Bullocks also added a pass breakup as the Huskers held Mizzou out of the end zone in a 24-3 victory.

Iowa State—Bullocks intercepted his fifth pass of the season in the second quarter and made a season-high eight tackles against the Cyclones. He added his eighth pass breakup of 2004.

Oklahoma—Bullocks made eight tackles, including seven solo tackles, and also broke up a pass in NU's loss at No. 2 Oklahoma.

All-Big 12 Candidate

#20—Josh Bullocks

- ▶ Free Safety, Jr., 6-0, 205
- ▶ Chattanooga, Tenn.

- ▶ 2003 First-Team All-American
- ▶ 2003 First-Team All-Big 12
- ▶ Nebraska and Big 12 Record Holder for Interceptions in a Season (10 in 2003)
- ▶ Second on Nebraska Career INT List (13)
- ▶ 2003 Thorpe Award Semifinalist

2004

Junior free safety Josh Bullocks exploded onto the national scene last season by intercepting a Nebraska and Big 12 record 10 passes. Bullocks keyed a defense that led the nation in interceptions and for his efforts was named a first-team All-American and a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award.

Bullocks' performance as a sophomore earned him preseason mention on nearly every All-America list and is a centerpiece in a veteran Husker secondary. Behind the leadership of Bullocks, one of four Nebraska captains, the Blackshirt defense has once again exhibited the ability to be among the Big 12's best defenses in 2004. The Huskers also rank 18th nationally with 13 interceptions.

Bullocks picked off his second pass of the season against Missouri in a 24-3 Nebraska victory. The pick was the 13th of his career, second on NU career interceptions list, just one shy of the Nebraska school record. Bullocks has also made 51 tackles in his junior season to rank third on the team, and the most among defensive backs. Bullocks ranks fourth on the team with seven pass breakups.

The Chattanooga, Tenn., roams the NU secondary alongside his twin brother, Daniel, who has started the past two seasons at strong safety.

Bullocks Game-by-Game in 2004

Western Illinois—Bullocks opened the season with three tackles and one pass breakup as the Husker defense forced five turnovers in a 56-17 victory over the Leathernecks.

Southern Miss—Bullocks made four tackles and broke up a pass in Nebraska's 21-17 loss. The Huskers allowed Southern Miss just 239 yards and the Golden Eagles completed only 12-of-28 passes.

Pittsburgh—Bullocks picked off his first pass of the season in the second quarter and returned it 38 yards. He finished the day with six tackles, a pair of pass breakups and a quarterback hurry.

Kansas—Bullocks had five tackles and broke up a KU pass, as Nebraska limited the Jayhawks to just 24-of-49 accuracy through the air.

Texas Tech—Bullocks recorded seven tackles against Texas Tech, including six solo stops.

Baylor—Bullocks had a season-high eight tackles, one off his career high in NU's 59-27 victory.

Kansas State—Bullocks started his 25th straight game despite playing with an injured shoulder. Bullocks made two tackles in the game.

Missouri—Bullocks picked off a Brad Smith pass in the fourth quarter of Nebraska's 24-3 victory, his 13th career interception. Bullocks was part of a defense that allowed Smith to complete just 24-of-56 pass attempts.

Iowa State—Bullocks made two unassisted tackles and broke up a pass in Nebraska's road loss at Iowa State.

Oklahoma—Bullocks set a season high and tied his career high with nine tackles, including eight solo stops. He added a pass breakup in the loss to the second-ranked Sooners.

All-America Candidate

#38—Barrett Ruud

- ▶ Mike Linebacker, Sr., 6-2, 240
- ▶ Lincoln, Neb.

- ▶ Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week (MU)
- ▶ 2004 Butkus Watch List
- ▶ 2004 Lombardi Award Watch List
- ▶ Nebraska Career Tackle Leader (423)
- ▶ Nebraska Season Record for Tackles (149 in 2003)
- ▶ 2004 Nebraska Team Captain
- ▶ 2003 Second-Team All-Big 12
- ▶ Two-Time First-Team Academic All-Big 12

2004

Senior middle linebacker Barrett Ruud is in his third season as the field general for the Nebraska defense and has placed his name prominently in the Nebraska record book. The All-America candidate moved to the top of Nebraska's all-time tackle list at Texas Tech and continues to pile up the tackles.

Ruud made 12 tackles against the Red Raiders to move his career total to 347 tackles, surpassing the previous career leader Jerry Murtaugh who had 342 tackles from 1968 to 1970. Ruud made a career-high 19 tackles, including a school-record 16 solo stops at Kansas State, then had 17 tackles and four TFL in Nebraska's win over Missouri to earn Big 12 Defensive Player-of-the-Week honors. Ruud now has 423 career tackles and is one of just seven players in Big 12 history to top 400 career tackles.

Last season, Ruud set the single-season tackle record with 149 total tackles, including 78 solo stops. With 80 solo tackles in 2004, Ruud has 212 career solo stops, shattering another Nebraska record.

The 6-2, 240-pound Ruud has been a model of consistency and excellence during his junior and senior seasons. Since the start of the 2003 campaign, Ruud has had 10 or more tackles in 18 of 23 games, and has made at least seven tackles in 26 straight games dating back to his sophomore campaign. This fall, Ruud has nine double-figure tackle games to give him 21 career games with 10 or more total tackles.

A Lincoln Southeast product, Ruud has four games with 15 or more tackles this season. He made a pair of key stops in the fourth quarter of NU's 14-8 victory over Kansas, part of a 15-tackle day. After a Husker turnover left KU deep in Husker territory, Ruud had a three-yard tackle for loss of KU quarterback Adam Barmann to stop a Jayhawk scoring threat. Late in the fourth quarter, he made an unassisted stop on a KU fake punt attempt, helping seal the six-point win. Ruud leads the Huskers with 17 tackles for loss this season and has 49 career stops behind the line of scrimmage, second in Nebraska history.

Ruud is one of four Nebraska co-captains this season. The Ruud family has a long history with Nebraska football. Barrett's father Tom (1972-73-74) played for Nebraska, as did two of his uncles (Bob Martin, John Ruud) and his great-grandfather, Clarence Swanson. Barrett's younger brother, Bo, is a redshirt freshman linebacker for Nebraska.

Ruud Game-by-Game in 2004

Western Illinois—Ruud opened the season with a 10-tackle effort in Nebraska's 56-17 victory over the Leathernecks. Ruud also recorded a tackle for loss in the victory.

Southern Miss—Ruud moved past 300 career tackles with nine tackles in Nebraska's 21-17 loss to the Golden Eagles.

Pittsburgh—Ruud posted his second double-figure tackle effort of the season with 12 stops in a 24-17 victory at Pittsburgh. Ruud also had a pass breakup, his first sack of the 2004 season (three yards) and three tackles for loss.

Kansas—Ruud posted 15 tackles, the fifth-highest tackle total of his Nebraska career and his 15th career double-figure tackle game. Ruud made 10 solo stops in the 14-8 victory, had two pass breakups and a three-yard tackle for loss.

Texas Tech—Ruud moved to the top of Nebraska's all-time tackle list with 12 tackles against Tech, including 10 solo stops. Ruud broke the record late in the third quarter and improved his career tackle total to 347 by game's end.

Baylor—Ruud had 15 tackles in a 59-27 win. He was in on a sack and had two total tackles for loss, pushing his career total to 39 TFL.

Kansas State—Ruud recorded a career-high 19 tackles, including a school-record 16 solo tackles in Nebraska's game at Kansas State. Ruud also made three tackles for loss, including a sack and moved his career TFL total to 42, fourth in school history.

Missouri—Ruud made 17 tackles, including a Nebraska linebacker record four tackles for loss in the Huskers' 24-3 victory. One of his four tackles for loss was a sack. His effort earned him Big 12 Defensive Player-of-the-Week honors for the second time in his career.

Iowa State—Ruud reached double figures in tackles for the seventh straight game with 11 stops, and had a quarterback hurry that forced a Cyclone interception.

Oklahoma—Ruud recorded more than 10 tackles for the eighth consecutive game with 14 stops against Oklahoma. He also had two tackles for loss in the contest.

For more on Barrett Ruud, please see pages 90-91 in the 2004 Nebraska Football Media Guide.

What Others are Saying

▶ "I can see why he makes the tackles he does because he's well-prepared. He's into the game, and he loves football. You see him work and function on the field, and you see a desire to make a play. He has the ability to diagnose a play, an offense, a blocking scheme. He knows where he fits. He knows how to play off other players, and he's relentless. Even if he's not there, he's going to chase the ball, and he's going to get there. To me, that's one of the outstanding attributes of his play."

Nebraska Head Coach Bill Callahan

▶ "Barrett Ruud is as efficient of a linebacker as I've ever been around. He's very smart and always in the right spot. He's becoming a more physical player, has tremendous range and is just a smart player. He really understands the game and picks things up very well."

Nebraska Defensive Coordinator Kevin Cosgrove

#3—Fabian Washington

- ▶ Cornerback, Jr., 5-11, 180
- ▶ Bradenton, Fla.

- ▶ 2003 Third-Team All-Big 12 (Coaches)
- ▶ Fourth on NU Career Interceptions List (11) and Tied for Fourth in PBU (38)
- ▶ 2002 Second-Team Freshman All-American (The Sporting News)

2004

Junior cornerback Fabian Washington has been a mainstay in the Husker secondary in each of the past three seasons. The Florida native earned a starting job as a true freshman and has been a key performer for the Blackshirts ever since. Washington earned third-team All-Big 12 honors last fall, and is poised for honors again this fall.

The 5-11, 180-pound Washington has been a key factor for the 2004 Blackshirts. Washington has three interceptions, increasing his career total to 11 interceptions. His 11 interceptions are good for a tie for fourth place on the Nebraska career charts and just three from the school record.

Washington also has a team-high 15 pass breakups this season, just two PBU shy of the school single-season record. He now has 38 career breakups, tied for fourth on the Husker career list. The four players in front of Washington on the Husker career PBU charts are all active cornerbacks in the National Football League. Washington had six breakups against Kansas, the second-most in Nebraska school history.

Washington Game-by-Game in 2004

Western Illinois—Washington made four tackles, including a five-yard tackle for loss, and also picked off a pass, one of five Nebraska takeaways in a 56-17 victory.

Southern Miss—Washington made four tackles and recorded his first pass breakup of the season as NU limited Southern Miss to 239 yards of total offense.

Pittsburgh—Washington intercepted a first-quarter pass and returned it 19 yards to the Panther 4 to set up a Husker field goal. Washington missed the last 2 1/2 quarters of the game with an injury.

Kansas—The junior had one of the finest games of his Nebraska career, with six pass breakups, the second-most in NU history. Washington also picked off his third pass of the season in the first quarter and added three tackles and a tackle for loss.

Texas Tech—Washington made four tackles, including three solo stops.

Baylor—Washington had five tackles and a pair of pass breakups in Nebraska's 59-27 victory in Lincoln.

Kansas State—Washington made six tackles and had a pass breakup against KSU.

Missouri—Washington had four tackles and a pass breakup in the Huskers' 24-3 victory over Missouri.

Iowa State—Washington had three tackles and broke up three passes in Nebraska's seven-point loss at Iowa State.

Oklahoma—Washington made five solo tackles, including a one-yard tackle for loss in Nebraska's loss at second-ranked Oklahoma.

- ▶ Quarterback, 6-0, 205, Soph.
- ▶ Jersey City, N.J.

- ▶ Nebraska Single-Game Passing Yards Record (342 vs. Baylor, 2004)
- ▶ Tied Nebraska Record for Total Touchdowns in a Game (6 vs. W. Illinois)

2004

Sophomore quarterback Joe Dailey was charged with the difficult duty of running Nebraska's West Coast Offense this fall. The 6-0, 205-pound Dailey has posted solid passing yardage totals this season as he set several Husker passing records this season.

Dailey established a new Nebraska single-game passing record with 342 yards in a 59-27 victory over Baylor. Dailey completed 13-of-20 passes in the game and threw for five touchdowns to tie another school record. Dailey has topped 200 yards passing four times in 2004. He threw for 218 yards against Western Illinois, when he threw for 213 yards and four touchdowns before halftime. Dailey also rushed for two touchdowns in the 56-17 victory over the Leathernecks, and his six total touchdowns tied a Nebraska school record. He also topped 200 yards passing against Southern Miss and Iowa State.

Through 10 games, Dailey is completing 49 percent of his passes and is averaging 172 yards per game through the air. Dailey was Nebraska's No. 2 quarterback in 2003, and played in eight games as Jammal Lord's top backup.
