Pierre Allen

DE, 6-5, 222, Denver, Colo. (Thomas Jefferson HS)

Defensive end Pierre Allen joins Nebraska from Thomas Jefferson High School in Denver, Colo., the same school that former Husker Cory Ross attended. The 6-5, 222-pound speedster runs a 4.6 40-yard dash and earned three stars from Rivals.com. He helped Coach Dan Trumble's Spartans into the Class 5A state football playoffs the past three seasons, including a 6-5 record in 2005. Rivals.com ranks Allen as the 34th-best weakside defensive end in the country. He was named to the SuperPrep All-America 277. A tremendous athlete, Allen also played basketball for Thomas Jefferson, and helped lead the team to back-to-back 4A (second-largest classification in Colorado) state basketball titles the past two seasons, earning MVP honors in the state tournament both years. Allen was the 4A player of the year as a junior, averaging more than 20 points per game and led class 4A in rebounding (14.3) and blocked shots (5.3). As a senior, Allen was named class 4A Mr. Basketball, averaging 19.2 points per game, and leading the class in rebounds (355), and blocks (122). On the football field, Allen led his team in tackles and was named team defensive MVP as a junior. Allen only visited Nebraska, but also had offers from Colorado, Colorado State, Michigan State, Syracuse, Washington and Wyoming. Allen earned two stars from Scout.com, while Scouts, Inc. ranked him among the Top 100 defensive end prospects in the country. Allen earned Denver Post first-team All-Colorado honors as an athlete. Allen, the son of Tara Jenkins and Destry Allen, was born on Nov. 18, 1987.

Steve Allen

LB, 6-2, 230, Delray Beach, Fla. (Fresno City (Calif.) College/Atlantic HS)

Steve Allen, a 6-2, 230-pound linebacker, is one of eight junior college recruits to sign with the Huskers, and one of three Florida natives in the class. Allen, ranked No. 44 on the Rivals.com Junior College Top 100, runs a 4.5 40-yard dash and chose the Huskers after also receiving offers from Michigan State and Central Florida. Allen, who like fellow signee Andre Jones attended Fresno City (Calif.) College, earned a four-star rating from Scout.com and a three-star rating from Rivals.com. As a freshman playing for Coach Tony Caviglia at Fresno City, Allen recorded 66 tackles, including one sack and nine tackles for losses, while also adding two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and an 88-yard interception return for a touchdown. As a sophomore, he recorded 81 total tackles, including five tackles for losses, five quarterback hurries, two sacks and a forced fumble in earning honorable-mention Junior College Wire All-American honors. College Football News ranks Allen as the 30th-best junior college prospect in the country, and the third-best junior college linebacker in the nation. Allen is ranked No. 37 on the SuperPrep JUCO 100. Allen attended Delray Beach (Fla.) Atlantic High School, where he recorded 108 total tackles including 35 tackles for losses and eight sacks. He originally committed to Iowa State in 2003. Allen will have three seasons to play two at Nebraska. He was born on Dec. 3, 1983.

Cruz Barrett

OL, 6-4, 315, Daytona Beach, Fla. (Mainland HS)

Offensive lineman Cruz Barrett of Daytona Beach (Fla.) Mainland High School is one of three recruits from the state of Florida to sign with Nebraska. Barrett is one of three signees from the state of Florida, giving the Huskers seven recruits from the Sunshine State in the past two years. The 6-4, 315-pound Barrett ranks as the 36th-best offensive guard prospect in the nation according to Rivals.com, while also ranking as the 60th-best player in the state of Florida. Barrett earned three stars from both Rivals.com and Scout.com. Barrett also received scholarship offers from Florida, Florida State, North Carolina, Oklahoma and West Virginia. PrepStar placed Barrett on its All-Southeast region team. Barrett is ranked among the SuperPrep Florida Top 96. Barrett was a two-year starter for Coach John Maronto at Mainland, which finished 8-3 in 2005 in Florida's second-largest classification. Mainland currently has 41 players in college football at all levels. He is ranked as the 55th-best prospect in the state of Florida on the Tallahassee Democrat's Sunshine 75. Barrett also plays basketball for Mainland. Barrett was born on April 30, 1988. He lives with guardian Janice Wilson.

Major Culbert

DB, 5-11, 198, Harbor City, Calif. (Nathaniel Narbonne HS)

Defensive back Major Culbert was one of Nebraska's final commitments, pledging to the Huskers in mid-January. The 5-11, 198-pound Culbert ranks as the 39th-best athlete in the nation according to Rivals.com, which also ranks him as the 34th-best player in the state of California. As a junior, Culbert ran for 1,116 yards and 12 touchdowns, while recording 90 tackles, seven sacks, two interceptions and three fumble recoveries. He earned first-team all-league honors and second-team all-area honors for his efforts in leading Nathaniel Narbonne High School in Harbor

City (Calif.) to a 10-3 record. As a senior Culbert enjoyed a breakout year. Coach Manuel Douglas' Narbonne squad finished 6-5 as Culbert ran for 1,955 yards and 17 touchdowns and added 10 receptions for 123 yards, while recording 106 tackles, seven sacks and two interceptions. Culbert received a three-star rating from both Rivals.com and Scout.com, which listed him as the 30th-best cornerback prospect in the country. Culbert chose Nebraska after also receiving offers from Oregon, UCLA, Washington, California, Fresno State, San Diego State and UNLV. Culbert holds the Narbonne school record for most yards rushing in a single game with 332 yards, and rushed for more than 4,000 yards and 37 touchdowns during his high school career. He was selected as player of the year by the Daily Breeze Newspaper in Torrance, Calif. Culbert was named second-team all-state as a defensive back by CalHi Sports. Culbert is ranked on the SuperPrep All-Far West team. Scouts, Inc. has Culbert ranked as the No. 57 safety prospect in the nation. PrepStar placed Culbert on its All-West region team. Culbert also runs track at Narbonne, participating on the 4x100 meter relay team. Culbert, the son of Renee Culbert, was born on Dec. 29, 1987. His godparents are Orlando and Maria Pile.

Victory Haines

OL, 6-7, 285, Logan, Utah (Snow College (Ephraim, Utah)/Logan HS)

Victory Haines, a 6-7, 285-pound offensive lineman from Snow College in Ephraim, Utah, officially signed his letter of intent to attend Nebraska in December and enrolled at the University of Nebraska in January. He is the first Nebraska scholarship recruit from the state of Utah since Manaia Brown inked with the Huskers in 2000. Haines was ranked 77th on the Rivals.com Junior College Top 100, earning three stars on the recruiting service's five-star rating system. Originally from Logan, Utah, Haines chose Nebraska over Duke, Hawaii, Illinois and New Mexico State. Haines graduated from Logan High School in 2001, where he led his squad to a state title in 2000, and then enrolled at highly ranked Snow College in the fall of 2001. After redshirting his first year at Snow College, Haines embarked on a two-year mission to Hungary in 2002 before returning to Snow College. Haines was named the team MVP for Coach Steve Coburn at Snow College, the school that recently produced defensive end C.J. Ah You of Oklahoma and offensive tackle Taitusi Lutui of Southern Cal, in leading his team to a 10-2 record and a victory in the Top of the Mountains Bowl, where Snow College defeated Butler, 17-14 at Rice-Eccles Stadium. Snow College finished 2005 with a No. 7 national ranking. Haines also helped Snow College to a Top of the Mountain Bowl win in 2004. Haines is ranked among the SuperPrep JUCO 100. Haines, who also earned three stars on Scout.com's five-star rating system, was a 2005 All-Western States Football League first-team honoree. Haines was named a third-team Junior College Wire All-American in 2005. College Football News ranks Haines as the 20th-best junior college offensive lineman in the country. Haines, the son Barbara and Keith Haines, was born on March 3, 1983.

Ricky Henry

OL, 6-3, 280, Omaha, Neb. (Omaha Burke HS)

Ricky Henry, a 6-3, 280-pound offensive lineman from Omaha Burke High School is one of four in-state players to sign with Nebraska and was NU's first commitment in the 2006 class, pledging to be a Husker in April of 2005. Henry ranks as the seventh-best offensive center prospect in the nation according to the Rivals.com, while also ranking as the second-best overall prospect in the state of Nebraska. Henry was a first-team all-state selection as a junior and a senior after earning honorable-mention all-state honors as a sophomore. He was named to the 2005 Lincoln Journal Star Super State team and the Omaha World-Herald All-Nebraska team. Playing defensive line for Coach Jack Oholendt's Bulldogs, Henry logged 84 total tackles as a senior, including 27 tackles for losses and three sacks after amassing 107 total tackles as a junior, including 12 tackles for losses and 10 sacks. Henry, who earned a three-star rating from both Rivals.com and Scout.com, can play either interior position on the offensive line as well as defensive tackle. PrepStar placed Henry on its All-Midlands region team. Henry is ranked No. 32 on the SuperPrep Midlands Top 77. Henry chose Nebraska after also receiving offers from Kansas and Kansas State and garnering interest from Iowa. Henry is the first scholarship recruit from Omaha Burke High School since Adam Julch and Aaron Wills in 1995. Henry was the Class A state champion as a heavyweight wrestler his senior season, after finishing runner-up as a junior. Henry, the son of Maria Henry, was born on July 27, 1987.

Will Henry

WR, 6-5, 195, El Paso, Texas (J.M. Hanks HS)

Will Henry adds impressive size and speed to the wide receiver position for Nebraska. The tallest receiver to sign with the class, Henry stands 6-5, weighs in at 195 pounds, and runs a 4.5 40-yard dash. The 6-5 Henry matches Wilson Thomas (1998) as the tallest receivers to sign with the Huskers since at least 1974. Henry played for Coach Ron Durks at J.M. Hanks High School in El Paso, Texas, and chose Nebraska after also receiving offers from Missouri, New Mexico State and UTEP. As a junior, Henry caught 16 passes for 273 yards and three touchdowns. Henry enjoyed a breakout season as a senior, totaling 52 receptions for 917 yards and 12 touchdowns while earning Class 5A First-Team All-State honors from TexasHSFootball.com and Honorable-Mention Class 5A All-State honors from the Associated Press. Playing defense as a junior, Henry recorded 35 total tackles and intercepted two passes. Henry is ranked among the SuperPrep Texas Top 102. Henry also runs track for Hanks. Henry, the son of William and Vernetta Henry, was born on Dec. 10, 1987.

Jacob Hickman

OL, 6-3, 270, Bakersfield, Calif. (Centennial HS)

Jacob Hickman was a member of Nebraska's 2005 recruiting class, but delayed his full-time enrollment until January of 2006. Hickman was a two-way standout for Coach Brian Nixon at Centennial High in Bakersfield, playing defensive tackle and offensive line. Hickman earned second-team CalHi Sports all-state honors as a senior in 2004, and was a first-team all-state underclassman selection as a junior, when he also earned all-area and all-league honors. Hickman had 56 tackles and 13 sacks as a junior in helping Centennial to a 10-3 record. Hickman was ranked as the 28th-best offensive guard in the nation by Rivals.com in 2005 and the No. 43 overall prospect in California by the service. SuperPrep Magazine listed Hickman as the No. 61 player in the state of California, while Scout.com listed him as the No. 64 player on its West Hot 100 and the No. 46 overall offensive lineman in the country. Hickman only visited Nebraska, but also received offers from Arizona, Arizona State, Colorado, Washington and UCLA. Hickman is the son of Bill Hickman and Nancy Smith, and was born on Aug. 14, 1986.

Menelik Holt

WR, 6-4, 215, San Diego, Calif. (St. Augustine HS)

Wide receiver Menelik Holt was one of the Huskers' first commitments in the class of 2006, committing verbally in June of 2005. Standing 6-4 and weighing 215 pounds, Holt brings size to a position that places a premium on it in the West Coast Offense. Holt, who hails from St. Augustine High School in San Diego, the same high school as current Husker Jordan Congdon, ranks as the 44th-best wide receiver in the nation according to Rivals.com. The same publication ranked him the 57th-best prospect in the state of California. Holt earned first-team all-league honors as a junior, catching 42 passes for 726 yards and 12 touchdowns, and also adding an interception return for a touchdown. As a senior, Holt caught 62 passes for a league-leading 790 yards and 13 touchdowns. On defense, Holt recorded 17 tackles, including a league-leading 4.5 sacks, one forced fumble and one interception. He also played special teams, returning seven kickoffs for 127 yards. As a senior, Holt earned first-team Medium School all-state honors, as Coach Jerry Ralph's St. Augustine Saints won the CIF 2005 Division III title. Holt received a three-star rating from both Rivals.com and Scout.com. PrepStar placed Holt on its All-West region team. Scouts, Inc. has Holt ranked as the 31st-best receiver prospect in the country. Holt is ranked on the SuperPrep All-Far West team. Holt played center for the St. Augustine basketball team, and as a junior, he averaged 10 points and 16 rebounds a game, while setting the school record for rebounds in a playoff game with 22, leading St. Augustine to both San Diego Section and Southern California Regional Division III titles before losing in the state finals. Holt, the son of Mary Holt and Joseph Holt, was born on Aug. 19, 1988.

Seth Jensen

DT, 6-3, 275, Fort Morgan, Colo. (Fort Morgan HS)

Seth Jensen, a 6-3, 275-pound defensive tackle from Fort Morgan (Colo.) High School, was another one of the Huskers' early commitments, pledging to join the 2006 class in June 2005. Jensen ranks as the 36th-best defensive tackle prospect in the nation according to Rivals.com and the fourth-best prospect in the state of Colorado. Playing for Coach Rick Kahl at Fort Morgan, Jensen recorded 70 tackles in earning first-team all-conference and honorable-mention all-state honors as a junior. As a senior, Jensen logged 89 total tackles, including 4.5 sacks, seven tackles for losses and two fumble recoveries. On offense, he recorded 30 pancake blocks. Jensen earned four stars from Scout.com and three stars from Rivals.com. Scout.com ranks Jensen as the 24th-best defensive tackle prospect in the nation. He also made the Insiders Midlands Top 50 list. Jensen was named to the Denver Post's "Best of the Best" team, making the offensive line in Class 3A. Jensen only visited Nebraska, but also received offers from Oklahoma, UCLA, Colorado, Iowa State, Kansas State, Colorado State and Wyoming. College Football News has Jensen ranked as the 37th-best defensive tackle in the nation. Jensen also cracked the Fab50Recruiting.com Top Fab50 Defensive Lineman. Jensen is ranked among the SuperPrep Midlands Top 77. Analyst Tom Lemming listed Jensen as one of his "High Risers." College Football News ranks Jensen as the 37th-best defensive tackle prospect in the country. PrepStar placed Jensen on its All-Midlands region team. Jensen also played basketball for Fort Morgan, averaging 8.5 points per game as a junior, and played baseball early on in his high school career. Jensen, the son of Dean and Jane Jensen, was born on Sept. 1, 1987.

Brandon Johnson

DT, 6-3, 312, Chicago, Ill. (Compton (Calif.) CC/Graceland Univ./Marshall HS)

Brandon Johnson hails from Compton (Calif.) Community College, the same school as current Husker Ola Dagunduro. A 6-3, 312-pound defensive lineman, Johnson ranks as the 84th-best Junior College prospect according to Rivals.com, and received a three-star rating from both Rivals.com and Scout.com. As a freshman, the Chicago native played for NAIA school Graceland University in Lamoni, Ill., and totaled 51 tackles and eight sacks before transferring to Compton for his sophomore season. As a sophomore playing for Coach Cornell Ward at Compton, Johnson recorded 79 tackles, including 10 sacks and 15 tackles for losses, earning First-Team All-Western State Conference Southern Division honors. Johnson also received offers from Arizona, Arizona State, Michigan State, Minnesota, Oregon and Washington. College Football News ranks Johnson as the 54th-best junior college prospect in the country and the eighth-best junior college defensive tackle in the nation. He attended high school at Marshall High School in Chicago, Ill. Johnson was born on Sept. 2, 1985.

Andre Jones

DB, 6-0, 192, Fort Walton Beach, Fla.

(Fresno City (Calif.) CC/Kentucky/Choctawatchee HS)

Andre Jones, a 6-0, 192-pound defensive back prospect, earned a five-star rating from Rivals.com and ranks as the fourth-best junior college prospect in the country, regardless of position. Jones, who graduated from Choctawatchee High School in Fort Walton Beach, Fla., recorded 50 tackles and three interceptions as a senior in high school, following up a junior campaign in which he tallied 44 tackles and four interceptions. Originally committing to Kentucky out of high school, Jones played in three games for the Wildcats in 2003 before suffering a season-ending leg injury. Jones was awarded a medical redshirt season for 2003, and transferred to Fresno City (Calif.) Junior College to start the 2004 season. As a freshman for Coach Tony Caviglia at Fresno City, Jones recorded 50 tackles and five interceptions. As a sophomore, he totaled 54 tackles and two interceptions, along with 13 pass breakups. Jones also added 15 kickoff returns for 392 yards, earning California Community College Football Coaches Association First-Team All-American honors and Region II First-Team All-California honors at defensive back, along with Junior College Wire First-Team All-American honors. Jones selected Nebraska over USC, Oregon, Oregon State, Washington, Washington State, Arkansas and Utah. Jones earned a four-star rating from Scout.com. Jones is ranked No. 8 on the SuperPrep JUCO 100. College Football News ranks Jones as the eighth-best junior college prospect in the country and the top junior college cornerback in the nation. Jones, the son of Jerilin Jones, was born on Aug. 16, 1983.
